Flood alerts in place as 2012 set for wet record

FLOOD warnings stayed in place for England and Wales over the weekend as the short break from heavy rain is expected to give way to another band of wet weather.

Days of torrential rain hit many parts of Britain throughout December as many still count the cost of severe flooding.

Hundreds of alerts have been issued by the Environment Agency this month, as several days' worth of rain has fallen in just a few hours in places, contributing to a year of bad weather which has left the UK close to its wettest since records began in 1910.

But while Saturday was largely dry for many, forecasters have predicted the break is only temporary.

Heavy rain is expected to return today and into Monday morning, falling on already-saturated ground.

The South West, South East and Midlands are most likely to be affected, as well as large chunks of Wales, the Environment Agency said.

Forecasters reckon 2012 could become the wettest on record in the UK after predicting a wet and windy end to the year.

BRITAIN'S HEADING IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

Er, what direction is that, Prime Minister?

By SIMON DEAN

simon@sundaysport.co.uk

DAVID Cameron has used his New Year's message to declare Britain is "heading in the right direction" on all the big issues and can look forward to 2013 with "realism and optimism".

Looking beyond the evidence that our once-great nation is well and truly knackered, the Prime Minister acknowledged that 2012 was "tough", with many families finding it difficult to make ends meet, and admitted he had "no quick fixes" to the UK's economic problems.

But he cited evidence of "real progress" on cutting the state deficit, reforming welfare and improving school standards, which he said was preparing Britain to succeed in the "global race" with economic giants China and India for future jobs and opportunities.

Cameron said: "We can look to the future with realism and optimism."

"Realism, because you can't cure problems that were decades in the making overnight. There are no quick fixes and I wouldn't claim otherwise.

"But we can be optimistic too because we are making tangible progress. We are doing what's right for our country and what's best for our children's future."

Evidence

"On all the big issues that matter, we are heading in the right direction and I have the evidence to prove it.

"The deficit is forecast to be a quarter smaller at the New Year than it was when the Government came to office, there are almost half a million more people in work and more than 1,000 new academies have opened."

And he hailed moves to take millions of low-paid workers out of income tax, freeze council tax bills and deliver the largest-ever increase in the state pension.

Cameron added: "Britain is in a global race to succeed. It is a race with China, India and Indonesia; a race for the jobs and opportunities of the future."

"So when people say we can slow down on cutting our debts, we are saying no. We can't win with a great millstone of debt round our necks."

Ex-Times editor Rees-Mogg dies

FORMER Times Editor William Rees-Mogg has died at the age of 84.

His son, the Tory MP Jacob Rees-Mogg, said the peer only recently found out that he had inoperable oesophageal cancer.

Lord Rees-Mogg, who edited the paper from 1967 to 1981, was also a former vice chairman of the BBC and chairman of the Arts Council.

He was influential in Conservative Party circles, particularly during the Thatcher and Major governments.

He received a life peerage in 1988 and sat as a cross-bencher, although he had twice in the 1950s stood for Parliament as a Tory. Jacob Rees-Mogg told The Times: "He died very peacefully and a member of his family was with him. He was very prepared for it."

Four dead after Russian jet crash

A RUSSIAN passenger plane yesterday crashed onto a main road outside the capital Moscow.

It overshot the runway after landing and officials say that four people on board were killed.

Images from the scene posted on Twitter just after the crash show the badly-damaged, burning aircraft lying in pieces across a road at Moscow's Vnukovo airport.

The plane's tail and cockpit broke off with the fuselage still intact. The Tupolev-204 had arrived from the Czech Republic with 12 people on board.

Tulisa's dad: Sex tape not that bad!

X FACTOR babe Tulisa's dad has defended her kinky sex tape, saying, 'everyone does it'.

Plato Contostavlos says he offered the 24-year-old pop stunna some fatherly advice after her ex-boyfriend Justin Edwards leaked the X-rated footage online earlier this year.

And the Mungo Jerry keyboard player reckons the clip was nothing to be ashamed of.

He said: "I told her to get it into perspective. It wasn't so bad that she was filmed having sex."

"It's what everyone does behind closed doors."

Plato, 53, has also revealed that Tulisa may quit as a judge on the ITV1 talent show.

Tulisa has proved a major hit on the show since replacing Cheryl Cole on the panel two years ago, but her old man says she is "bored of it."

He added: "She doesn't need the X Factor, she's got N-Dubz."

"N-Dubz can do one gig and earn up to £500k. I want her to make some serious dosh."

Corrie Cat: My rat pest nightmare

SOAP babe Catherine Tyldesley hasn't always been glamorous...she used to be a RAT CATCHER!

The Coronation Street minx took a series of demanding jobs before finding fame.

And the 29-year-old says her worst experience came while employed as a pest controller on the mean streets of Salford, Greater Manchester.

The busty beauty - aka Corrie minx Eva Price - admitted: "I recently worked out that I've had 26 jobs in between acting gigs."

"I was a waitress for five years, on and off."

"And I worked in pest control, too - my least favourite job ever!"

"I've also worked in some really rough pubs, like something out of Shameless."

"I feel a lot safer in the Rovers than I did in them!"

THE last 12 months have been amazing for me - with so many highlights.

If I was asked to pick one favourite moment though, it would have to be a photoshoot in Portugal back in June.

I travelled out there with a couple of other glamour models from the UK and we had the best time ever!

It was more of a holiday for us really - sat NAKED around the pool of our private villa every day and getting an all-over sun tan.

I was hoping to get away to somewhere nice and hot for New Year but I'll be staying in London and going out partying with my topless model pals this year.

KYLIE: MY ONE NIGHT STANDS

ONE NIGHT IN HEAVEN: Little Kylie

SQUEAKY-CLEAN pop queen Kylie Minogue isn't quite as innocent as you might imagine.

The Oz beauty has sensationally revealed she hasn't always been into long relationships. In fact, Kylie, who wowed audiences when she duetted with ex Jason Donovan for the first time in 23 years two Fridays ago, has enjoyed a saucy past of ONE NIGHT STANDS!

The petite stunna, 44, said: "I've always been very choosy who I have sex with but I have done one-night stands. It's not something I frown on."

The ex-Neighbours star has dated a string of hunks, including former co-star Jason Donovan, INXS singer Michael Hutchence, rocker Lenny Kravitz and French actor Olivier Martinez.

"I end up having a panic attack and wanting to get the damn thing off."

"It was so racy. I had William and a choreographer - two guys - in the dressing room."

Lesbo Sophie locks lips with latest conquest

FIRST LESBO LOVE: Sian played by Sacha Parkinson

THIS is the moment Corrie lesbo Sophie Webster locks lips with sexy Street medic Jenna Kamara.

It's the first relationship for Sophie - played by Brooke Vincent, 20 - since the character split with fiancée Sian Powers (Sacha Parkinson) on their wedding day a year ago.

But the girl-on-girl get-together will prove difficult as Jenna - played by actress Krissi Bohn, 29 - is also Sophie's physio, helping her to recover from a car accident caused by Ryan Connor.

It's further complicated by the fact Jenna is ten years older than her young love interest - and muddled further still by the fact that Sophie's garage owner dad Kevin also has the hots for the pretty hospital worker.

A Corrie source said: "Jenna's breaking a major moral code by getting involved with a patient. 'And Kevin's bound to get jealous when he realises what's going on, too. Watch out for the fireworks!'"

DILEMMA: Will Jenna fall for Sophie?

EU law chief warns Britain over nonces 'running free'

A TOP eurocrat has warned that Britain pulling out of EU law and order measures would lead to sex-crazed nonces running free up and down our streets.

In a blatant scaremongering move, Viviane Reding, the vice president of the European Commission who is responsible for justice, said the repatriation of powers on crime and policing would be "crazy".

Prime Minister David Cameron indicated earlier this year that the Government would opt the UK out of the laws, including the European Arrest Warrant, sparking a rift with his Liberal Democrat deputy Nick Clegg.

In an interview with the Daily Telegraph, Mrs Reding warned: "Do you want criminals and paedophiles running around freely on the streets? Is that really in the United Kingdom's interest? It is crazy!"

Cameron is under pressure from Tory eurosceptics to loosen Britain's ties with the EU as the bloc's eurozone members move towards greater integration.

He is expected to announce within weeks that he is prepared to hold a referendum on a new relationship between the UK and Brussels which he is determined to forge over the next two years.

BATTERED FOR LOOKING LIKE CHRIS MALONEY

FORGIVING: Understanding Chris double Stuart says he can see why people would want to give him a slap

X Factor fool's double set upon in kebab shop

By NEIL GOODWIN
neil@sundaysport.co.uk

SITTING in his hospital bed nursing a broken nose and two black eyes, hapless assault victim Stuart Adair is in forgiving mood.

Because the unfortunate Chris Maloney lookalike has bizarrely SIDED with the thugs who battered him, saying, "I can't stand that smug X Factor tw*t either!"

Poor Stu, 35, was set upon by Stella-quaffing yobs outside a kebab shop in his home town Wrexham, north Wales, last week.

He'd been targeted by the baying mob due to his remarkable resemblance to annoying Scouse warbler Chris, 38, who came third in this year's ITV1 talent show. And while farmer Stu can't forgive his attackers, he understands why he was beaten so readily by chavs.

The singleton told Sunday Sport: "I can't stand the X Factor, and as soon as that Chris lad popped on screen I knew I was in trouble.

"My friends instantly started telling me how much I looked like him.

Screaming

"And when I realised what an insufferable cry-baby he was, I knew I'd be targeted.

"When the beating began I just thought, 'Fair enough'. The lads who attacked me were screaming, 'Sing us a song, dickhead!' and 'mummy boy pillock!'

"Even I can see that Chris has a very punch-able face. Frankly, I'd like to give him a slap myself."

Former cruise ship singer Chris suffered a rocky ride during his appearances on The X Factor.

Some questioned the logic of putting him through to the final stages.

Others shot down Chris' claims that he was a bag of nerves before taking to the stage, saying it was nothing but a vote-winning 'sham'.

The Merseysider has even suffered death threats from online trolls.

But Chris has vowed to stick two fingers up to the critics, saying: "It's not the end for me. It's just the beginning."

Builders hit Lotto Jackpot most in 2012

BLOKES and builders were the luckiest Lotto players in 2012 – in a year that created 323 millionaires, Camelot has revealed.

The National Lottery paid out more than £850 million to the 323 top winners in the past year – up from 229 in 2011.

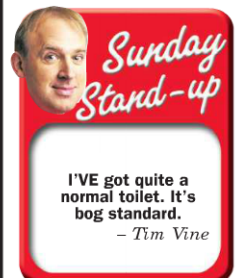

Builders, care workers and administrators were the luckiest jobs while estate agents, advertising staff and market traders were the least lucky.

Women also fared worse than the fellas, bagging only 40 per cent of big wins.

The luckiest star sign was Capricorn, with those born between December 22 and January 19 hitting the most wins.

Mansfield builder Gareth Bull kicked off 2012 for Britain's construction workers when he and wife Catherine scooped a EuroMillions jackpot of £40,627,241 on January 20.

The biggest jackpot of the year went to Suffolk care worker Gillian Bayford and her hubby Adrian (above) when they scooped £148,656,000 in August.

One-legged man hops it

A ONE-LEGGED man who has gone missing from his home was last seen carrying a wheelchair, a TV and a dinghy.

Ian Wanless, 57, was last seen getting in to a taxi at his house near Stockton, Cleveland, on December 27.

He is described as white, 5ft 9", of stocky build, with blue eyes and balding with grey hair at the sides.

Mr Wanless wore a black tracksuit jacket with a white stripe down the sleeves, dark coloured tracksuit bottoms with white trainers and a Christmas jumper.

A spokesperson for Cleveland Police said: "Ian has a prosthetic limb on his left leg. He had a number of items with him including a wheelchair, TV and inflatable dinghy."

"Police are increasingly concerned for him – he's on medication that he has not taken with him."

Innocent man knocks himself out after fleeing police drugs raid

A MAN knocked himself out on a barrier as he fled a police drugs raid – despite having NO illegal substances on him.

Jessie Hacker, 21, legged it when officers attempted to search him outside a pub and ran straight into a cycle barrier, knocking himself unconscious.

He pleaded guilty at Bristol Magistrates Court to obstructing police during the operation at the Lord Nelson pub in the Barton Hill area of the city.

Chair of the bench Lynn Hunt told him: "I hope you realise how silly it is you are appearing before us today, seeing no drugs were found on you."

Hacker, of Lockleaze, Bristol, was handed a £225 fine, £85 court costs and a £22.50 victim surcharge following the incident on December 2.

Andrea Edwards, prosecuting, said police went to the pub after reports of a small group of people taking drugs outside.

Police asked Hacker if he was carrying drugs, which he denied, and then asked him to go with them so he could be discreetly searched.

Instead, the hapless man did a runner down a nearby alleyway, straight into a barrier, which floored him.

Hacker, defending himself, said: "I just panicked and ran off."

Spidey babe Emma fears she's a BOY!

MOVIE stunna Emma Stone says she is trapped in the body of a BOY.

The Amazing Spider-Man actress reckons she is not as glam as Hollywood image makers would have you believe.

She hates exercise and once had such bad acne that her spots had to be digitally airbrushed out of one of her hit films.

Emma, 24, revealed: "I was kind of born with a 10-year-old boy's body."

"For years, I was like: 'Please let me grow some kind of curvature!' But it didn't happen."

"I'd kill for some cha-chas and a tuckus!"

Emma also said her skin was far from perfect.

She added: "I had stress acne when I was 20, when I did Easy A, which they kindly video-airbrushed out of the movie."

Uni students on game drive sex prices down!

A MASSIVE increase in students paying their way through uni with sex work has driven the price of a bonk DOWN!

Former brothel madam Becky Adams (above), who is taking part in a Swansea University project examining youngsters in the sex trade, said that the market was almost flooded by the open-minded teens.

Becky, 44, revealed: "The number of young people turning to sex work to pay their way through university has increased enormously.

"There are just squillions of them."

And the former convent schoolgirl, who once dressed up as Rolf Harris for a client, has noticed "a massive difference in the last 18 months".

She added: "For the first time ever you have got more young people on the game than customers who want to see them."

Becky, from Hay-on-Wye, in Powys, said the Swansea University study was putting together figures for the numbers of young women on the game.

She said: "With so many women wanting a piece of the action prices have tumbled.

"An hour used to be £150 in the 90s and now you can find an hour for £70 or £80."

All I want for Xmas is an affair

LOVE cheats have shattered the traditional view of happy families getting together for the festivities.

A staggering 16,783 Brits have registered on an adultery dating website since Christmas Day.

It's almost four times UndercoverLovers.com's usual sign-up rate.

And spokeswoman Emily Pope said: "We're used to a big increase in people registering on the site after Christmas, but even we've been surprised by the numbers joining.

"It's been a particularly tough year for families with job uncertainty placing great strains on marriages."

What do we want? A cure for Tourette's! When do we want it?

P*SSFLAPS!

SWEARY TIC SUFFERERS STAGE PROTEST OUTSIDE PARLIAMENT

HORRIFIED tourists were left covering their ears after a protest march by Tourette's Syndrome sufferers ended in obscenity-riddled chaos.

Demonstrators with the campaign group Treatment, Welfare and Awareness of Tics (TWAT) unfurled banners and chanted slogans during a march on Westminster last week.

They're calling on the Government to step up their attempts to create medication specifically designed to treat their four-letter disorder.

Outbursts

But chants of 'What do we want? A cure for Tourette's! When do we want it?' were followed-up by accidental outbursts, including "P*ssflaps!" and "cock arse!"

—leaving passers-by shocked and stunned.

The group's spokesman Jack Yardman, 53, said that Metropolitan Police had politely asked protestors to refrain from shouting – or risk being charged with a public order offence.

Speaking after the march, he added: "A few members of public were taken aback by the impromptu additions to our slogans.

"But at least we got our message across. There's a negative attitude towards our plight but all we want to do is simply raise awareness."

The syndrome – which makes sufferers blurt out inappropriate phrases like "I fed a sheep!", "Sp*nkburger!" and "Jimmy Savile!" – was first documented by French boffin Georges Gilles de la Tourette in 1885.

American scientists are working on finding an effective treatment – and Mr Yardman wants Brit counterparts to do the same.

Doctor Robert King, a professor at Yale University Medical School, Connecticut, USA, said: "The major stumbling block to research on Tourette Syndrome has been a lack of DNA samples."

Mr Yardman added: "Shit tits!"

Sewage leak families face another month in the sh*t!

DISGUSTED families who are having to wade through a "sea" of human sewage in the road outside their homes have been told it will be MID-JANUARY before they're out of the shit.

A long-term problem with sewers under Water Lane in Bookham, Surrey, came to a head during heavy rain last week which led to a blocked drain collapsing.

Tankers spent several days and nights pumping away the waste water, churning sewage into the road and blocking residents in the cul-de-sac.

But it was not cleared up and they had to spend a smelly Christmas with a foul stench and faced a nightmare trudge through the sludge when they went out.

Stephen and Diane Poole, whose house is beside the manhole used to access the sewer, complained to Thames Water but have been told the mess will not be cleared until January 19th and possibly longer if there's more flood damage.

Stephen said: "It's human sewage out there – my neighbour has had it all over his front garden."

"Children and disabled people on mobility scooters have to get through this disgusting sea of filth."

But, having spent time here, the 33-year-old now reckons we're thick as shit.

The actress, who is married to Brit actor Hugh Dancy and who stars alongside London-born Damian Lewis in Homeland, rapped: "I think Americans tend to give British people a lot of credit for being smart and educated."

"And that's not always the case. We defer easily to British people. Now I know better."

Savile as Santa is behind advent calendar's Christmas Eve window

WHEN Grace Prendergast opened the last window of her advent calendar on Christmas Eve she fully expected to find an image of the Baby Jesus or a robin.

In fact, when she drew back the flimsy flap of cardboard, the well-behaved 11-year-old was faced with a picture of BBC nonce JIMMY SAVILE!

Faced with the leering image of the dead pop pervert – whose unveiling as a serial sex beast RUINED an otherwise glorious Jubilee and Olympic year – little Grace SCREAMED with horror.

And her terror cast a pall

By SIMON DEAN

over the neat Prendergast household in leafy Wilmslow, Cheshire.

Grace, who is close to the top of the class in all subjects, is still so traumatised by the experience she is unable to utter a single word in front of strangers.

Her immaculately-dressed mother Fiona said: "Dear Grace's shock has simply ruined our Christmas."

"She's normally such a bubbly child but the au pair said she has hardly uttered a word for days."

"We were forced to leave her at home with the staff when we went to Rupert's parents for Christmas lunch. We could not have had her gibbering and sobbing in front of Rupert's father. He has poor nerves."

"What kind of monster puts a picture of this vile Savile creature in a traditional advent calendar? I imagine it was meant as some kind of joke but it's one in the very poorest of taste."

Sunday Sport investigators have discovered the cut-price calendar was made for the UK market in the down-at-heel Bulgarian city of Plevna.

According to the printing experts we contacted, it would appear that the Savile image would have been secreted in the calendar at some point during the manufacturing process.

But managers at Bulgar Fine Good Quality Yes Print were less than helpful when we contacted them.

We were told: "We no know your Savilly man, yes? Prank? What mean by prank? No compensation from us, no? Goodbye to you, yes."

Mrs Prendergast said: "This is the last time I allow the au pair to buy the family advent calendar."

"Honestly, do I have to do everything myself?"

Nigella: I wear TWO bras for my big boobs

TOP-heavy chef Nigella Lawson says she has to wear TWO bras when she goes running because of her 'massive tits'.

The brunette lovely has a pair of the most succulent breasts we've ever seen on the telly.

And the kitchen scorchers says her big baps make jogging a nightmare.

The 52-year-old confessed: "I tried running at first but I had to wear two bras and I felt rather corseted."

"It's not the feeling of liberation I was expecting."

Despite being known for her heaving rack, Nigella says there's much more to her than just shirt potatoes.

She added: "Massive tits? Tut tut. And it's not 'mysterious and sexy' that I do, it's really 'wishing you weren't there'. Switching everything off."

But the bouncy babe still lets her boobs run free when exercising on her walking machine.

She said: "I do 15 minutes walking on the treadmill."

"I play music very loud, and I sing. In my bra. My bra and FitFlops and nothing else."

Laura Newman
Age 23, 34D-23-34, from Salisbury

I WENT to see The Hobbit over Christmas and it was fantastic. I'm a big fan of The Lord of the Rings films and this movie tops them all.

It's funny, dark and the special effects are amazing. You have to go see it!

I can't wait for the next part to be released next year.

THE NEWS FLASHER

2012 was a year of economic upheaval, political change and terrible tragedy. So who the f would want to read about that all over again?!

Not us, that's for sure. So here is a review of the last 12 months guaranteed to put a smile on your face!

JANUARY

A BRITISH woman with TWO vaginas turned down a £1m offer to make porn movies.

If they were looking for a fame-hungry woman with two cts, why not ask N Dubz (right)?

● BUCKINGHAM Palace held a dignified silence over claims that disgraced King Edward VIII bummed a Hollywood rent boy.

That would make a good film. Suggested title: The King's Peach.

TWO men were jailed for attempting to blackmail Wayne and Coleen Rooney after finding the couple's camera.

Lawyers said the crime caused great distress and trauma.

I'll bet it did. After looking at "personal images" of Shrek and Coleen without her slap on, those poor lads will be scarred for life.

FEBRUARY

FABIO Capello quit as England coach over his support for John Terry, who was accused of racism.

He should have understood that we English take racism very seriously – especially if it means we can get rid of a foreigner who has come over here and taken one of our jobs.

● LADY Gaga confessed that she used to suffer from the eating disorder bulimia.

Makes you wonder if her infamous "meat dress" was really a fashion statement or she'd just barfed up a mixed grill.

THE Grammy Awards went ahead despite the death of singer Whitney Houston.

Whitney is said to have loved the Grammys, even though it would have been more cost effective to buy in bulk.

MARCH

● VETERAN singer Engelbert Humperdinck (right) was named as the UK entry in the Eurovision Song Contest.

At last, a singer with a proven ability to beat the Europeans – although this time he was not allowed to use mustard gas or a Lee-Enfield rifle.

A GIANT poster of Kate Moss was blown over in London, injuring four people.

Folk normally have a crush ON gorgeous supermodels, not under them.

● A DOG was disqualified from Crufts after sitting in the parade ring.

It was a red setter, apparently. And, if they had left it for a few months, it would have become a white crumbler.

BOLTON midfielder Fabrice Muamba died during a match against Spurs – but is brought back to life by doctors.

Within a few days they say he is "able to talk and answer questions".

So, better than most footballers then.

● MANCHESTER City boss Roberto Mancini denied seeking divine help to win the League.

"You can't ask the Virgin Mary to help you win a football championship," he explained. "That would not be right."

It would be a waste of time too. Mary was a simple peasant who never had sex and had to cuddle livestock to keep warm. Which means she is almost certainly a Norwich fan.

APRIL

● BRITAIN'S Got Talent contestant Analiza Ching was embarrassed by some old snaps of her posing naked with a violin.

It looked like a well-fingered foreign model with prominent pegs, no g-string and two F-holes. I couldn't tell you much about the violin though.

THE London rioter who set fire to Reeves furniture store was jailed for 12 years.

He should have torched a branch of DFS instead – they let you have the first four years for free.

● POP queen Madonna (left) showed her age by admitting she had never heard of hit boyband One Direction.

I'm not surprised. The poor cow is old enough to be the lads' granny.

Or, in Harry's case, his girlfriend.

A MERTHYR Tydfil man was jailed for throwing a karaoke machine at his missus.

At first she was afraid, she was petrified.

MAY

ROY Hodgson was officially unveiled as the new England football manager.

"I hope everyone will get behind me," he said.

"Of course we will, Roy," said the nation. "It is much easier to stab you in the back from there."

● THE Olympic torch was lit in Athens.

The Greeks are too broke to afford matches but it was OK – they just lit it off the nearest police car.

MANCHESTER City won the Premier League but their victory parade was marred when Carlos Tevez brandished a mock tombstone for Alex Ferguson.

Waving it from the top deck of a bus was a typically stupid and thoughtless gesture from a spoilt brat like Tevez.

Such things should be left at ground level, where EVERYONE can dance on it.

● HARDLINE Muslims forced the cancellation of a Lady Gaga gig in Indonesia.

Apparently they did not like her raunchy dancing, suggestive lyrics or the fact that her meat frock (left) was not halal.

She should have made amends by altering her song lyrics: Can't read my, can't read me, no he can't read my Burkha Face...

JULY

● THE London Olympics kicked off with a mass peal of bells at 8.12am.

The event was led by BBC Breakfast, with Sian Williams urging us to grab our bells and give them a good shake.

AN 11-year-old boy boarded a flight alone from Manchester to Rome without a passport or ticket.

Liam Corcoran later said he was just "looking for a toilet". In that case, he should have boarded a flight to Torremolinos.

● THE showbiz wedding of the year took place, as JLS heart-throb Marvin Hume wed girl band hottie Rochelle Wiseman (right).

It seemed fitting that Rochelle's band is called The Saturdays because, in around five years, that will be Marvin's day for seeing the kids.

SHOCK showbiz news, as Russell Brand started dating Geri Halliwell (above).

The ex-junkie had only just divorced gorgeous pop singer Katy Perry, going from Firework to old banger in a few months.

But maybe the two women are not so different. Perry launched her pop career by pretending to be a lesbian. Halliwell launched hers by pretending to be a singer.

AUGUST

GOLDEN girl Jessica Ennis (right) kicked off Team GB's incredible "Super Saturday" at the London Olympics.

There were calls for her local athletics track, the Don Valley Stadium in Sheffield, to be renamed in her honour.

A nice idea, but I felt sorry for Don and his family.

● BELARUS shotputter Nadzeya Ostapchuk was stripped of her Olympic gold medal after traces of banned substances were found in her urine.

It was a big shock, as her sperm sample was fine.

DOUBLE gold medal-winning cyclist Laura Trott was seen smooching fellow winner Jason Kenny.

Kenny is also a track cyclist but he does a bit of horse riding in his spare time. Well, he certainly enjoys breaking into a Trott.

● A FANTASTIC Games closed with the Spice Girls performing on top of moving London cabs and a surprise performance by George Michael.

Sadly, the surprise was NOT that George was driving the cab with Geri on top.

OUTSIDE the Games, there was fury when a tabloid newspaper published pics of Prince Harry and a young woman cavorting naked in a Las Vegas hotel suite.

They appeared to be playing snooker, with Harry lining up for the easy pink or the tight brown.

His father was said to be furious. Prince Charles, however, was pretty cool about it.

JUNE

● THE European Championships took place in Poland and Ukraine.

The high point was Wayne Rooney's goal against Ukraine, which he celebrated by pretending to spray his hair – a jokey reference to the fact that he'd borrowed some of Andy Carroll's gel.

Teammates do not usually share hair product, although John Terry and Wayne Bridge did go halves on a moose.

GENEROUS movie beauty Angelina Jolie (right) gave £1.5m to charity in a single year, it is revealed.

And yet you take just ONE pair of knickers from her washing line and she goes bloody mental.

● SINGER Cheryl Cole reveals that she could have become a heroin addict, had she followed the path of other youngsters on her tough council estate.

Instead she became a pop princess, and the only time she uses "smack" is on toilet attendants who don't know their place.

OCTOBER

THE Conservative Party Conference took place in Birmingham, with PM David Cameron celebrating his 46th birthday at a balti house.

Apparently the curry was good but the rice was a little undercooked. He has not had to bite the pilau since Eton.

● FEATHERWEIGHT boxer Orlando Cruz fought Jorge Pazos just days after admitting he is gay.

He must be the first boxer who secretly hopes his opponent might lick him in the ring.

EX-jockey Willie Carson retires as a BBC racing pundit.

Co-presenter Clare Balding said she will miss him – but not the old wooden box he stood on to make them equal heights.

It is not often you can say that Balding prefers Willie to box.

● GORGEOUS model Kate Upton (right) released her own brand of headphones. Lovely cans.

NOVEMBER

● TORY MP Nadine Dorries (right) appears on ITV1 show I'm A Celebrity.

She claimed to have been given the nod by then Tory chief whip Andrew Mitchell but he may have misheard her Liverpool accent.

He probably thought she said: "I'm a pleb, you see, get me out of here."

BIG Brother winner Chantelle Houghton claimed her ex-boyfriend Alex Reid cheated on her with other MEN – while dragged up as female alter ego "Roxanne".

I would not like to be in his shoes. High heels play havoc with my sciatica.

● CHUBBY pop star Adele said she will only diet if her weight stops her from having sex. That seems unlikely. Fat girls enjoy sex just as much as skinny ones. You just have to make sure you find the right foid. (Tip for Adele's fella: never mind Rolling In The Deep. If you can't find the wet spot, try rolling her in the flour.)

DECEMBER

NEW Pepsi-Cola cans are launched, featuring the face of Beyonce Knowles.

The pop megastar was said to be pleased with the look of the can but would have preferred a more traditional style of opening device.

Or, as she told Pepsi bosses: "You shoulda put a ring-pull on it."

● POLICE in America capture a gang planning to kidnap and CASTRATE Justin Bieber.

The crooks had planned where to store Bieber's bollocks and even purchased shears to do the job – although it is not known if they had anywhere to keep him for the next five years while waiting for them to drop.

BRAD Pitt appears on billboards as the new face of ladies' perfume Chanel No. 5.

It might sound girly but apparently women can be highly aroused by feminine perfumes. So wear a squirt of Chanel No. 5 tonight and she might let you take her up Channel No. 2.

GLAMOUR legend Jenny McCarthy (above) reveals she once tried to shag a tree while high on drugs.

If it was an English ash, I hope she made it wear a condom – those things are riddled.

SUNDAY Sport WORLD EXCLUSIVEBIN LADEN SPOTTED AT BOXING DAY SALES

Barrymore:
'I was framed for murder'

FALLEN TV personality Michael Barrymore has spoken of how he reached rock bottom – and came close to KILLING HIMSELF after being branded a murderer.

The former Strike It Lucky host said he felt he had been slowly murdered by the tabloid press after a man was found dead in his swimming pool.

Barrymore, speaking to The Independent newspaper, said: "My real name is Michael Parker, but Michael Barrymore is dead. (The press) killed Michael Barrymore."

"Although I have been a couple of times to the jumping-off point, I didn't kill myself. If I had, it would have completed the story."

Ecstasy and cocaine were found in Stuart Lubbock's blood after he was found dead in the grounds of Barrymore's Essex mansion in March 2001.

Barrymore added: "It was just a party that went disastrously wrong, with a tragic ending. I've basically been framed for a murder – one that didn't take place."

"I have never killed anyone."

GAZZA'S ON A XMAS BREAK THIS WEEK, FOLKS!

Is this proof terror chief is still alive?

By SIMON DEAN

simon@sundaysport.co.uk

THE Boxing Day sales – with the pushing and shoving – were no place for a decent human being.

And here's the proof... Standing patiently in line outside a branch of leading retailer Primark in London's Oxford Street is a VERY familiar face... OSAMA BIN LADEN!

With their eyes fixed firmly on the prize of discounted goods, fellow shoppers do not give the terror chief a second glance.

Even though the 9/11 monster is supposed to have been DEAD since May last year!

And this, the SECOND sighting of Bin Laden in Britain, adds fuel to the conspiracy theories which suggest his "death" in the Pakistani town of Abbottabad in 2011 was a FAKE – like the Moon landings.

In December last year we found Bin Laden begging for coppers in Halifax, West Yorks.

SIGHT FOR SORE EYES:
How we broke the news in 2011

At the time, our story was poo-pooed by the authorities and Sunday Sport even received a menacing phonecall from America's Central Intelligence Agency, warning us that our exclusive was "damaging".

Now, with further proof that Bin Laden's corpse was NOT dumped in the Arabian Sea, the naysayers look RIDICULOUS!

One security analyst, who asked to remain anonymous for fear of reprisals, said: "It has long been suspected America's military/industrial complex simply invented the myth they had killed Bin Laden."

"I doubt even President Obama is aware of the truth. But he was happy to be the President who claimed Bin Laden's scalp."

"It remains a mystery why Bin Laden chose Primark – I much prefer Matalan."

God damn, he's Laden down with bargains!

Aaliyah's current affair with Jon Snow

GRUMPY broadcaster Jon Snow will have raised a smile – and possibly something else – after sexy glamour girl Aaliyah Johnson appeared on his Channel 4 news show last week.

No-nonsense Snow, 65, is famed for his dour grimace.

But even he will have been doing a jig inside after clapping eyes on sexy Aaliyah's 32DD curves.

The sultry model, 25, appeared on the high-brow news show (below) to talk about the dangers of tanning injections.

And she told us: "Channel 4 news isn't exactly known for its topless models, so it's nice to inject a little bit of glamour into proceedings. "Broadcasters like Jon Snow are usually more interested in talking about economic ripples than rock hard nipples! "Maybe they'll get me to do a boobs-out weather bulletin the next time I'm on?"

SWORDSMAN REVEALS THE SECRET OF HIS SEXCESS

A SEX-MAD gardener has revealed the secret of getting laid almost every day: "Don't kick out the FATTIES!"

Randy Alan Lynn, 42, has spent just 60 nights alone this year by CHOICE – to recover from dusk-till-dawn romps with his HUNDREDS of lovers.

He admits trawling internet dating sites in order to satisfy his incredible sex drive – but insists he's HONEST with his countless conquests.

"I've never said I'm looking for love," said Alan.

"I always make it quite clear that I'm looking for a full night of no-holds-barred sex and then I'm off.

Classic

"This isn't a case of me looking for a girlfriend or a wife or whatever. I'm after my jollies and the women I meet for sex are exactly the same."

Alan – who has already bedded a staggering 300 women this year alone – candidly admits that his duvet companions rarely have classic girl-next-door looks.

He explained: "You've got to go where you can get it. And the truth is, the better looking girls can get it anywhere they like.

"There's no point trying it on with someone who has the pick of all the guys. You're on a hiding to nothing there.

"The best sex is with women who really, really want it – and that's why I don't have a problem shagging the larger ladies."

Alan reckons the biggest woman he's had sex with was over 25 stone – or even possibly 30 stone – she was certainly bloody big".

But he added: "She was bloody amazing, too. I was clambering all over her like a lizard on a huge rock.

"She let me be as mucky as I wanted to be and couldn't get enough of it.

"In the end I had to admit defeat. I'd had God knows how many orgasms and so had she – but still she wanted more!"

Alan met roly-poly sisters Gill and Jennifer Barrie on a specialist online dating forum.

He said: "They were straight up for it from the outset. Their profile said 'We're big girls and proud of it'.

"I was instantly attracted and made contact straight away.

"They said they wanted a threesome but were having trouble finding a guy who would sleep with two big girls at the same time.

"But I was in there like a shot. I was like a thin slice of ham between their chunky slices of bread.

"It was amazing. And I'm definitely going back for more."

Alan, who's from Ironbridge, Shropshire, is now hoping that he can put his extraordinary swordsman abilities to good use as a

LOVING IT: If you're not too fussed you can get it every day, says Alan full-time sex instructor.

He said: "I've shagged women of all shapes and sizes. The secret is to set your bar so low that no woman can ever turn you off, no matter how non-shaggable she might seem to other men.

Better

"If anything, it's a case of the uglier the better. Those girls are so grateful they'll do pretty much anything just to see the smile on your face.

"To me it's a mystery when some fellas say they won't sleep with fat girls.

"Why not? Fat girls like sex just as much as everyone else. "The difference is they're much more thankful than girls who can get it any time they like.

"And that's why I'll always choose fat over fit."

Sinead: Nothing compares to a good boning!

QUIRKY singer Sinead O'Connor says that while she has a "filthy" side, sex is "godly".

The Nothing Compares 2 U singer – who has previously hit out at the Catholic Church, ripping up a picture of the Pope on live television – said she does not believe sex in any form should be "shameful".

She said: "I can talk about anything. I may be rude and filthy; I'm also very loving and very affectionate."

"To me, sex is a godly, sacred thing. It doesn't matter, as long as it's consensual, no one gets hurt, or does anything against their will."

"So to me, there's nothing shameful about, you know, boning."

Sinead, 46, also spoke out at people who criticize her image.

She added: "I understand where people are coming from when they say (it distracts from the music), but my mission in life is to remain myself no matter fing what."

GUESTS at Premier Inn's 647 hotels have left 18 festive jumpers, 17 copies of 50 Shades of Grey and 137 blank Christmas cards in rooms during December, the chain revealed.

BUNNY HUGGERS KILL BLENDER KITTEN

Molly perishes in arson attack on cruel kid's home

Sarah Randall

Age 21, 3466-25-35, from Wales

I HOPE you all had a great Christmas, I certainly did! I got everything I wanted and a few surprises as well. My favourite present was the new Kindle Fire my mum bought me. It's fantastic for watching movies... and surfing ebay for those bargain killer heels.

A DEAR little kitten threatened with BLENDING by a Xmas gift-hungry nine-year-old was SAVED from her grisly fate thanks to the intervention of Sunday Sport.

That's the good news...

The bad news is that six-week-old Molly was KILLED on Friday in a house fire – believed to have been started by animal rights extremists furious at the cruel antics of tearaway Tommy Coleman.

Last week we revealed that Coleman – who smokes cigarettes and drinks lager like many of his older brethren in the lower orders – sent a snap of Molly to Father Christmas.

Smoothie

In the accompanying letter he threatened to turn the blue-eyed kitten into a feline SMOOTHIE unless an extravagant list of presents was delivered on Christmas Day.

Our story provoked international outrage – making TV news headlines as far away as China and Argentina. Devilish Coleman was spirited away from the family home in Birkenhead, Merseyside, and taken to stay with relations in Crewe, Cheshire.

But militant bunny huggers decide to take the matter further and in the early hours of

By SIMON DEAN

simon@sundaysport.co.uk

Friday morning poured an accelerant – believed to have been organic methylated spirit – through the letter box of the Coleman house and set it ablaze.

Mercifully, Tommy's parent's Mike and Cheryl were out at the time but little Molly was still in the house and did not stand a chance.

Drunk

Last night Mike and Cheryl were too distraught – and too drunk, quite frankly – to comment.

But a neighbour, who asked not to be identified, shuddered: "Oh, the bitter irony! I'll bet those animal rights lot are kicking themselves!"

"If it weren't so sad, you'd have to laugh!"

MELIA KREILING – THE BORGIAS

LUCKY Hollywood veteran Jeremy Irons got to WASH delicious half-Greek, half-Swiss beauty Melia in the racy Sky Atlantic drama The Borgias.

The dusky beauty was seen getting lathered up by Irons' naughty priest character while she lay naked in the bath in the steamy period drama.

IT'S been something of a classic year for gentlemen fans of boobs on the box.

We could barely flick on a telly without being confronted by a welcoming pair of fine celluloid breasts.

Of course, the actors and directors will always tell us that a bit of on-screen nudity is required in order to add dimension to a character and realism to a script.

But we reckon most male viewers see it for what it is

By JUSTIN DUNN

justin@sundaysport.co.uk

– a chance to knock out a sly one before taking the dog for a wee and locking up for the night.

The truth is, there can NEVER be enough boobs on the box. But here at Sunday Sport we recognise our duty to sort the wheat from the chaff.

So here are our top ten moments of small screen breasticle beauty.

Just don't forget to take the dog out...

MAXINE PEAKE – ROOM AT THE TOP

FORMER Shameless babe Maxine, 38, appeared alongside Jenna Louise Coleman (see right) in BBC4's Room At The Top.

She played a sexually adventurous married woman in the hit drama.

Maxine says it can be hard portraying a woman who knows what she wants in bed.

She said: "I think women are still made to feel that they should be afraid of every sexual need."

CLAIRE FOY – WHITE HEAT

GORGEOUS Claire, 27, played a strident feminist in the BBC2 series White Heat earlier this year.

Luckily, her character's trenchant views didn't stretch far enough to prevent her from peeling off for a bout of naked nookie!

She also appeared in the remade BBC1 drama Upstairs Downstairs – but sadly, we've yet to actually to see her "downstairs" on camera....!

MELISSA GEORGE – THE SLAP

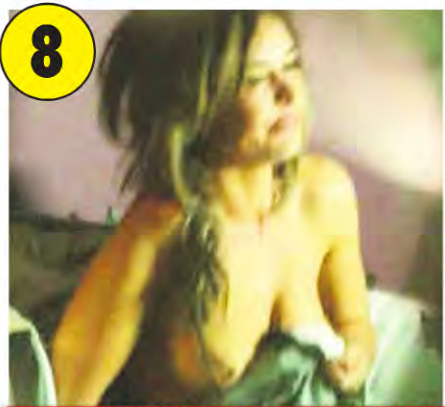

IT seems like only yesterday that Melissa made Home and Away essential viewing as tearaway teen Angel.

She's now a fully-fledged Hollywood star with films like this year's A Lonely

Place To Die – as well as having a cameo role as a lesbian babysitter in TV's Friends.

Mouth-watering Mel, 36, got her perfect pair out this year for Australian drama The Slap.

KIERSTON WARING – INSIDE MAN

FANS of hit TV heist drama Inside Men wished they were inside sexy star Kierston after clocking her saucy topless past.

The 34-year-old Brit babe appeared in the hit BBC1 TV mini-series about a group of employees in a security depot who execute a multi-million pound heist.

The stunning actress got temperatures racing when she flashed her flesh in 2010 flick Bonded By Blood.

MORENA BACCARIA – HOMELAND

SUNDAY night C4 drama Homeland is about US soldier Nicholas Brody – played by Brit actor Damian Lewis – who returns after being held prisoner by insurgents in Iraq.

His wife is played by Brazilian beauty Morena Baccarin, 33 – who whipped off her top to reveal her pert pair in the first episode!

TOPLESS TELLY, HERE'S THE TOP 10...

CLEMENCE POESY – BIRDSONG

BIRDSONG star Clemence is more than happy to strip off for nude scenes.

The French actress, 29, says she likes being in the buff since filming sex scenes with lucky co-star Eddie Redmayne for the BBC's World War I drama. She admitted: "If nudity is intrinsic to the part, I have no problem."

ROXANNE MCKEE – GAME OF THRONES

FORMER Hollyoaks beauty Roxanne McKee, 30, plays ex-prostitute Doreah in epic drama Game Of Thrones.

In one episode, shown over here on Sky Atlantic, Roxanne got naked with co-star

Harry Lloyd, 27.

She said: "The show is really racy and sexy. I know viewers will find it very exciting to watch."

"The scene where I'm naked is quite saucy, I have to admit – but it was fun to film."

The actress, who plays Oswin Oswald in the sci-fi series, was seen baring her breasts in two-part series Room At The Top.

We'd definitely go back in time for another glimpse of those!

SOPHIE RUNDLE – EXTRAS

TOP heavy Sophie plays mysterious maidservant Sefa in BBC1's Merlin.

And King Arthur is sure to have a stiff PORK SWORD as we unveil gorgeous 22-year-old Sophie's amazing Round Tables!

The Brit stunna bared all as Matt Le Blanc's crazed stalker Labia in BBC2 show Episodes, which was screened earlier this year.

Drunk OAP's Boxing Day bum frenzy

A BOOZED-up grandad who went to the pub on Boxing Day reappeared a day later to announce he was A GAY!

Tommy Watkins, 70, (above) told stunned missus Joan "something happened" after a pint of "mixed" – a blend of bitter and mild, much loved by northern men.

The former welder told his devastated wife of 40 years that he'd spent Boxing Day evening in a GAY SAUNA, exploring his new-found sexuality.

And he announced he was leaving the family home in Altrincham, Cheshire, to set up a boutique with a man called Tarquin he'd met at the hangout.

Joan, 68, said: "Tom just said on Boxing Day he was going to the local – he'd already finished a bottle of Christmas whisky – and a day later he comes back saying he'd gone queer, like!"

"We never had an inkling – he can't match colours to save his life and last time The Wizard Of Oz were on the telly, he called it 'tripe'."

"It must be just a phase he's going through."

I SAW that film The Artist. Didn't understand a single word of it.

Sex-change pot plant dope guilty

A DOPE who was caught growing 65 cannabis bushes claimed he was doing an experiment to create gender-bending plants, a court heard.

James Hooper, 42, told police he was trying to turn fully-grown female pot plants into male ones.

Cannabis bushes are one of the few plants that have separate genders.

Female flowering plants contain THC – the active compound which gets users stoned – and male plants are not as potent.

If Hooper had done his sex-change test it would have wiped out the £14k street value of his crop.

Hooper, of Sticklepath, North Devon, pleaded guilty to producing the Class B drug in a shed at his home.

North Devon Magistrates Court sent the case to Exeter Crown Court for sentencing next month.

STUNNING Amy Green loves wrapping her lips around a sweet treat at bed time.

The Sheffield cutie, who has gone brunette for our new photo shoot, says she loves a biscuit and a brew at night.

And the 32D babe reckons she's pretty tasty between the sheets too!

Amy, 23, revealed: "I'm usually quite healthy, but I can't resist a Jammie Dodger when I slip into my comfy bed."

"They're so yummy! I love to dip them in my tea to make them extra soft and gooey – that's just how I like to gobble them.

"I don't generally watch what I eat – I go to the gym every day so I'm allowed something naughty every now and then!"

"Anyway, I prefer being on the curvy side – girls with hips and a generous bum are super sexy!"

"And I reckon sugary food is a bit of an aphrodisiac, too. It never fails to make me feel VERY horny."

Chris de Burgh's daughter's strip for 'feminism'

CHRIS de Burgh's sexy model daughter has revealed she only got her tits out after a detailed study of feminist literature.

Rosanna Davison, 28, stripped off for the German edition of high-end tug pamphlet Playboy and appears on the cover.

But Rosanna, who at 5ft 10ins towers over her Lady In Red crooner dad, says she had proper motives for disrobing.

She said: "One of my big worries over doing Playboy was my responsibility towards women and towards feminism or towards the movement."

"I decided to do it based on my academic understanding of women's writing and literature."

But one reader of German Playboy was less convinced by the feminist argument.

Gunther Holst of Munich said: "Ach! Feminism mein arsch! Ich almost pulled ze end off."

Drunk mum 'bit teacher' after 30 min school rage

A TEACHER had to have anti-disease jabs after being BITTEN by a drunk mum, a court was told.

Kelly Kociela, 32, went to Filton Avenue Junior and Infant School, in Bristol, demanding to take her two kids from an after school club, Bristol magistrates heard.

In a struggle that lasted 30 minutes she was abusive to staff before biting deputy head Matthew Cox on his arm.

Mr Cox went to hospital and was given precautionary tetanus and Hepatitis B jabs.

Kociela, from Bristol, pleaded guilty to causing a nuisance on school premises, assault and using threatening words and behaviour on October 24.

She admitted downing three to four pint of lager and some rum and cokes but couldn't recall biting Mr Cox or being aggressive.

Kociela has previous convictions for being drunk in charge of a child in 2005, 2006, 2007 and this year.

Magistrates adjourned sentence to January 17, pending a probation service report.

They bailed her on condition she complies with an existing Bristol City Council restraining order banning her from the school.

Rock star Tre's a dog milker!

GREEN Day drummer Tre Cool has revealed he once milked a DOG because he had no cream for a coffee.

The Yank rocker (above) took drastic action during one of the American Idiot hitmakers' early tours.

The band were staying at a house with a lot of coffee but no milk, so Tre turned to the unfortunate pooch for help.

He admitted: "I did once milk a dog because there was no cream for my coffee."

In another bizarre stunt the 40-year-old enlisted the help of two dominatrix women to beat up one of the group's engineers while they were recording Blood, Sex And Booze, as he wanted a specific sound on the song.

Tre added: "It was quite entertaining - he thought he was badass so they gave it to him heavy."

SEX ADDICT'S NEW YEAR RESOLUTION

By ISOBEL DICKINSON

izzy@sundaysport.co.uk

RAMPANT Abi Harding has vowed to give up one-night nookie with strangers for her New Year's resolution – after racking up nearly FIFTY notches on her well-worn bedpost.

It's a wonder the kinky lass's bed is still in one piece after the amount of action it's seen in 2012.

The waitress has a libido that could put Hugh Hefner to shame – having worked her way through a whopping 46 casual romps in the last year.

But the one-night NYMPHO has now promised to put her love of casual encounters to bed.

Abi, 21, from Cleethorpes, Lincolnshire, who has been diagnosed with hypersexuality, fell into the hook-up habit after splitting with her long-term fella last Christmas.

She said: "I was gutted when he dumped me two days before Christmas – I felt like the world had been pulled out from under me.

"But it's my favourite time of the year and I didn't want to sit around feeling sorry for myself.

"So on Christmas Eve I put on my shortest skirt, a low-cut top and thought 'to hell with the knickers'.

"The first fit bloke I clapped eyes on I sidled over to and whispered in his ear that I wasn't wearing any panties.

"We went into the toilets and he sat on the loo seat and unzipped his flies. I didn't even bother asking his name. His big shiny cock sprang out at me and it was the best present I could have asked for. It was magnificent. I'd never seen

'Nothing turns me on more than the thrill of a new conquest' anything so inviting and I felt like a sex goddess.

"I straddled him and lowered myself down on to his willy and rode the hell out of him until I came. All I cared about was my own pleasure and I was so turned on I was done in minutes.

"He begged for my number but he'd given me what I needed – an orgasm and an ego boost – and that was that."

But the toilet tryst was just the start of Abi's new found love of one-night stands – and within 12 months she'd followed it up with another 45 romps.

She confessed: "Over the past year the last thing I've wanted is a boyfriend.

"I love the feeling of meeting someone and knowing I can do what I want with them and not see them again.

"Nothing turns me on more than the thrill of a new conquest. I didn't care if men were tall, short, fat or thin – as long as they had a willy.

"I even met a man in the frozen fish aisle in Iceland once and took him home."

It was only after her supermarket shag in November that a concerned pal suggested she get help.

Abi added: "It took me a while to admit that I'm a sex addict – the doctor said it was called hypersexuality and recommended some groups I can talk to. So in 2013 I'm wearing knickers on nights out and I'm going to try and find myself a nice boyfriend."

ONE NIGHT IN HEAVEN: Abi couldn't get enough new nookie

I'm giving up one night stands for 2013

Chip shop ciggies row women are YouTube hit

A VIDEO of two women arguing about the price of cheap cigarettes in a chip shop has become a YouTube sensation.

And at one point, the larger of the two ladies threatens to put the owner of Tom's Fish Shop's head in the FRYER.

The clip of the two girls arguing in Wishaw, North Lanarkshire, has now had thousands of views online.

Daniel Kelly, 28, who shot the footage, said: "There were these two women arguing with the owner about the price of cigarettes so I started filming. The women said the chippie was charging any price they wanted.

"But it was only 20p more (£6.29) than at Morrisons (£6.09).

"One then started on me for filming.

"At the start of the video one of the women said, 'You're lucky I don't stick your head in that fryer!'

"At the time I wasn't aware they had been drinking – I just thought they were being mental. There was a lot of shouting and they were really angry and aggressive."

Ashley Emma

Age 19, 32C-24-34, from Chelmsford, Essex

IT'S great to just pamper yourself with all your Christmas gifts at this time of year. I've been getting about three baths a day just so I can try out all my different smellies! And I haven't even got around to trying all my new underwear sets yet – mind you, I don't wear too much around the house! Some of the new stuff is a bit naughty, too. There's a fella out there who's in for a treat, I can tell you that!

Giant Smurf's council house paint rampage

A COUNCIL tenant who covered herself in blue paint to look like a giant SMURF has appeared in court.

Dawn Bates, 33, tipped the paint over herself as a prank while redecorating her council house in Narberth, Pembrokeshire.

Neighbours called police when they feared the three-bedroom home was being damaged.

Bates was arrested and charged with criminal damage to the council property.

Prosecutor Peter Lloyd told Haverfordwest Magistrates' Court: "She was completely covered from head to toe in blue paint – like some kind of giant Smurf."

"The officer couldn't work out who she was."

"The doors and walls were awash with paint and there was a banister and eight doors on a fire in the back garden."

Mark Layton, defending said: "She accepts she didn't apply the paint properly."

Bates admitted damage to the walls, kitchen, guttering and doors and will be sentenced in the New Year.

LOOSE WOMAN'S SHOCK BONK CONFESSION

CAROL: MY SEX WITH TWO MEN AT ONCE

LOOSE Woman Carol McGiffin has admitted having a threesome with TWO BLOKES in a tent.

And she confessed the sizzling sex session was so LOUD she disturbed her fellow campers.

Carol, 52, told all about the shock roasting romp after a few too many glasses of Champers on a night out with ITV1 chat co-hosts Denise Welch, Lisa Maxwell and Sherie Hewson.

The saucy revelation was filmed and now features on a Loose Women DVD.

Carol said: "I once did it in a tent with two blokes. There was nothing romantic about that!"

"You know what the terrible thing about it was, when you're in a tent with a canvas cover you think no one can hear anything."

By NEIL GOODWIN
neil@sundaysport.co.uk

"But other campers were asking us to be quiet."

MILF Carol also sang the praises of the good old-fashioned quickie.

She added: "Blokes think that by going on for a long time in a great performance. Two minutes is enough."

"Have you ever slept with anyone who's taken Viagra? It's a nightmare."

Her fellow blonde Lisa Maxwell, 49, admitted she's so tiny she's often "plopped" onto the sink for sex.

The stunna – who played DI Samantha Nixon on The Bill – revealed: "I always get put on the sink."

"I'm not high enough so whenever there's somewhere to plop me, on I always get plopped."

TENT FLAPS: Carol had two blokes under canvas

IN THE KNOW WITH MIKE STARR

MIKE STARR'S STARS TO WATCH IN 2013

WELL folks, hasn't 2012 been a busy year in the world of showbiz? We've seen stars go on the wagon, fall off the wagon and get their gizzards burst open by the wagon's wheels.

We've seen weddings, divorces, civil partnerships and unseemly couplings behind skips from Audlem to Arbroath.

But that was 2012. Now we're scratching on the door of 2013 like hungry dogs or sightless orphans.

Who will be big in the New Year? I've had a look in my crystal balls...

THE winner of KILMARNOCK'S GOT TALENT, the questionably-talented ANGUS GROSS, is set for big things in 2013.

The former "domestic redistribution operative" (ie burglar) has signed with PAPHILIDES RECORDS and owner NAXOS PAPHILIDES has high hopes of the light-fingered scotchman.

Naxos said: "Little Angus, he not so little if you know what I mean? He could split a cow with that thing... Ooof!"

IT could be a barnstorming year for OZZY SLICK – if he manages to steer clear of the showbiz Tizer and his nemesis, producer DAVE CRUNGE.

Ozzy should have hit the big time in June but an occurrence of wooziness at Peebles put paid to that and led to a spell at YELPING retreat for the perplexed.

Meanwhile Dave's anger seems not to have abated since Stowmarket. Told about Ozzy's release from Yelplings, he said: "They say Ozzy's his own worst enemy...not while I'm alive, he's not."

PRETTY Aberdare would-be starlet DILWYN HUGHES looks like smashing into lights in her own right next year. Fingers, and everything else, crossed.

The former member of controversial girl band HAIRLESS ACCESS made plans to go solo but those plans were delayed when she caught something unpleasant off a toilet seat in Llanelli.

Now that everything's draining properly she can hit the promo trail and, hopefully, rekindle things with TOM SHYNOBB.

LAST – but by no means least – let's hope that Seventies legend PONGO STOOPS makes that long-awaited comeback in 2013.

Pongo, lead singer of SPLITS EASILY until 1982, lived quietly in Cirencester until he was, er, questioned by the authorities.

He was later released without charge so good luck Pongs with your new album: They've Got Bigger Fish To Fry.

EASTENDERS BABE'S BONK CONFESSION

JESSIE: MY OUTDOOR SEX FANTASIES

BIG LOSS: Vince will be missing Jessie's fine boobs

NO surprise that burger van man Vince Morse has tasted success in the fast food game.

For here are the BAPS he waved goodbye to when fiancée Jessie Wallace sent him packing.

As our snap of EastEnders actress Jessie on holiday show, she has a fair pair of QUARTER POUNDERS on her.

What's more, today we can EXCLUSIVELY reveal that the top-heavy soap stunner is also partial to a bit of SAUCE when it comes to nookie – and longs for kinky outdoor sex.

Vince had his CHIPS when Jessie, 41, found he'd been texting explicit photos of her to an ex, and called off their wedding, four hours before they were to say "I do".

And the FAT really landed in the fire when it emerged Vince, 51, had

By JON LIVESEY

sent former girlfriend Karen Short, 47, a photo showing Jessie's dumplings.

It's since been reported that catering boss Vince wanted to set up a threesome and become the filling in a Jessie and Karen SANDWICH.

Dumped

Vince was booted out of the house the couple shared in Claygate, Surrey, after he failed to win Jessie's forgiveness, and their wedding plans were dumped in the bin.

And just to rub salt in the wound, we can reveal that Jessie craves to be shagged in a rainy field by a man in a TOP HAT.

The busty babe once said: "I'd love to have sex in the thunder in a field thick with mud, with a man in a top hat."

Jessie, who plays Alfie Moon's fiery wife Kat in the BBC1 soap, has since found a new fella, musician Tim Arnold.

Which is bad news for shamefaced Vince, who said that his hankering for a threesome involving Jessie and Karen was to blame for the break-up last year.

He told a friend: "I had this fantasy and I was really drunk."

"Me and Jessie had a silly row, like many couples do. I was angry and tried to make my fantasy a reality by sending Karen that pic."

"I was showing off, and when you're drunk you do all sorts of stupid things."

"It looks like it's destroyed the love of my life. I'm an idiot. My sordid sex fantasies have ruined my life."

"Jessie is the only woman I want. I'd do anything to win her back."

Toyboy 'poor sex' row lands drunk in jail

A FURIOUS drunk woman has been jailed for battering her toyboy lover after his poor performance in the bedroom.

Jennie Scott, 50, struck boyfriend Gilberto Deleon after he "finished first and stopped pleasuring her" during a sex session.

Cops were called to 32-year-old Deleon's home by a witness who heard the pair arguing.

Scott was then seen on top of Deleon, "punching and scratching him."

She also walloped Deleon with a stick and threatened to hit him with a wrench before the tool was taken off her by a neighbour who had come to investigate.

Scott told police officers that she was also mad at Deleon because she had "heard him having sex with another woman over the phone earlier in the day."

She struggled with cops before being placed in a police car, where she kicked a window until being warned that she would be sprayed with mace unless she stopped.

Scott was described by police in Manatee County, Florida, as "extremely intoxicated."

Wolfman's reserve in council threat

AN ANIMAL lover who lives with wolves as one of their pack, fears they could be put down after a council rejected planning permission for his reserve.

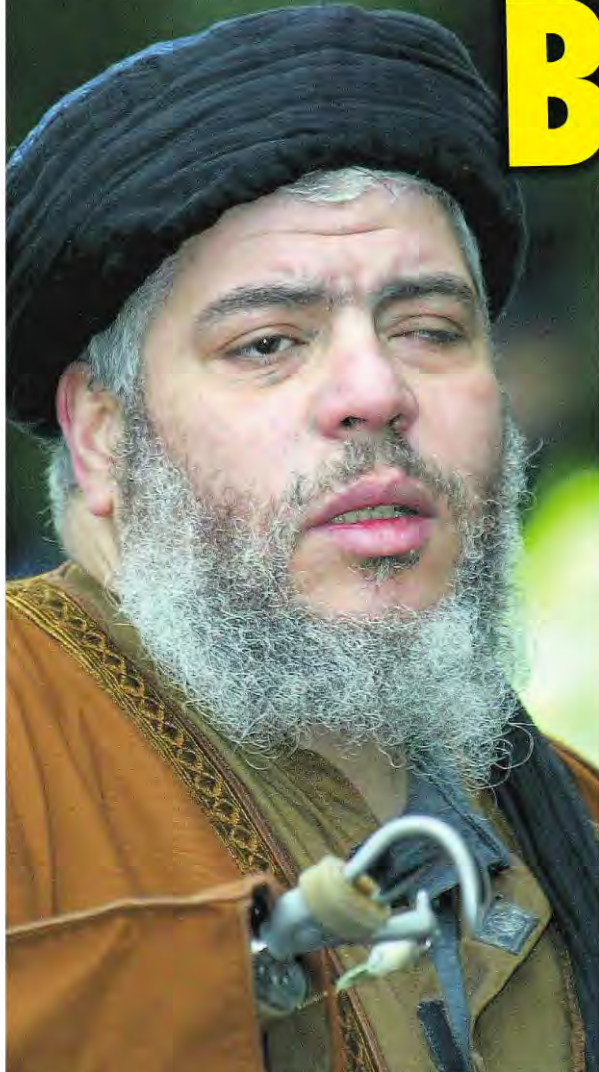

Shaun Ellis, 48 - known as the Wolfman - has lived and slept in the beasts' enclosure at a sanctuary in Combe Martin, North Devon for the past 27 years.

But after a complaint from a neighbour, North Devon council said he would need retrospective planning approval - which has now been declined.

Shaun said: "To have to put them down would ruin my life."

MUCH ABU ABOUT BUMMING

NEW HOME? The supermax prison in Colorado where Hamza could be heading

HOOK handed cleric Abu Hamza's BROWNEYE has become a BULLSEYE for sex-starved lags at the high-security jail where he's headed.

Prisoners at the top-security "supermax" jail in Florence, Colorado, where Hamza is likely to serve out his sentence have already got lazy lobs in anticipation of the fiend's arrival.

And they've even placed a BOUNTY on the strict Muslim's war-ravaged arse cherry.

One insider at the jail told Sunday Sport: "Hell, Hamza's the most eagerly-awaited piece of ass for a long time."

"The last time I can recall the guys getting this excited is when it looked like Michael Jackson was going to be jailed for paedophilia."

"The disappointment of missing out on Jacko has just added to the excitement. The first guy to get close to that terrorist's ass is going to tear his sphincter to shreds."

"If he dies, mid-sodomy, we will consider our patriotic duty done."

Hamza, 54, stands trial in New York next year on charges of

By SIMON DEAN

simon@sundaysport.co.uk

conspiring to set up a jihad training camp in Seattle and taking part in an Al Qaeda kidnapping that left four tourists in Yemen dead.

The loon, who lost both hands fighting the Soviets in Afghanistan, has pleaded not guilty to all charges.

But the likelihood of him being acquitted in the United States is slim, to say the least.

Battle

Hamza fought a long legal battle to avoid extradition from Britain to the US but he was finally sent to the States, where he is being kept at the Manhattan Correction Center awaiting trial.

During his last court appearance on December 14, his lawyers complained about conditions in the remand jail.

An appointment to fit Hamza new, non-lethal hooks in October was postponed due to Superstorm Sandy and Hamza's lawyer Lindsay Lewis said: "He's a handicapped individual living in a non-handicapped cell, in a non-handicapped facility. It is virtually impossible for him to use the tap."

WAITING: Manhattan Correction Centre where Hamza is being held

ITV BABE'S NUDE LESBO BATH ROMP

ARTY: Lenora in Doors Open and (right) bathtime fun in Sugar Rush

RACY actress Lenora Crichtlow starred in a NUDE LESBIAN bath scene that would have had Boxing Day viewers choking on their leftover turkey!

The stunning babe was back on screens last week in arts heist thriller Doors Open - about fourpals who attempt to rob pricey paintings.

But fans of Lenora will be more interested in her sizzling lesbo scenes in lusty Channel 4 lesbo drama Sugar Rush.

In the jaw dropping footage Lenora slips into a bath with a glass of bubbly before her randy rug-munching pal joins her for some girly action.

Last week Lenora, 27, starred alongside Stephen Fry and Douglas Henshall in the ITV1 adaptation of Ian Rankin's book.

A TV insider said: "Lenora was great in Doors Open but, after seeing her naked bath scene, I'm sure they'll be a rush of fans buying Sugar Rush boxsets."

HAVE you all thought of a New Year's resolution yet?
 I'm struggling a bit to be honest because I don't want to set a target that I'll never meet! I'm thinking maybe a little less chocolate in 2013 – it's my guilty secret!
 That said, if something makes you happy, you shouldn't deny yourself – you only live once after all!
 Happy New Year everyone!

Not rosy for couples with smelly dogs

SMELLY dogs have been blamed for couples splitting up after rows over the pongy pets.

A survey of 2,000 dog owners in the UK by Bryotol plc – a firm which develops anti-microbial hygiene technology – found that 5.5 per cent admitted that arguments over their malodorous mutt had caused a relationship to break down.

The poll also found that dog owners said their honking hound even put off their best pals from visiting them, with 27 per cent admitting that pals refused to come to their homes because of their dog.

Amongst the worst complaints about dogs from 'non-dog lovers', were that the mutts had smelly fur, left dog hairs all over their clothes, had muddy paws and were 'flatulent'.

TV vet Joe Inglis, who appeared on Vet School said: "Britain's dogs really are in the dog house."

"It's such a shame that Brits are losing their dog owning friends, just because they're worried about a lingering doggy smell."

SOAPER BOOBS!
 Newcomer Kierston has a topless and hot sex scene past

SOAP fans thought all their Christmases had come at once this year!

The EastEnders Xmas special episode marked the arrival of saucy ex-stripper Kirsty Branning, played by actress Kierston Wareing.

The blonde babe appeared as the secret wife of bad boy Max Branning (played by Jake Wood) on the day of his second wedding to poorly Tanya (Jo Joyner).

By JESSICA HAWORTH
jessica@sundaysport.co.uk

But the hushed nuptials aren't all gorgeous Kierston, 35, was keeping under wraps – as you can see from these INCREDIBLE stills.

Screaming

Kierston's sensational sex scene in 2009 drama The Take left viewers open-jawed when she was bent over the bed, screaming in ecstasy.

Stunning Kierston let loose as she thrust her bum into the air, giving us a cracking view of her peachy posterior.

And in the same year, the feisty babe finally treated us to a flash of her perky nipples in hit flick The Case of Unfaithful Klara.

Now, with Kierston at the centre of the BBC1 soap's biggest storyline, we're praying for a flash on a nightly basis!

Sex txt pics Miss's affair with Head!

A MARRIED teacher has resigned after being accused of sending saucy snaps of herself to a STUDENT...while having an affair with the HEADMASTER.

Jackie Fruge, 38, is said to have texted topless and other raunchy photos (below) to the boy, which were then circulated among other pupils.

When principal Mitch Fontenot, 45, was alerted he allegedly kept quiet because he was bonking her.

Police chief Varden Guillory said: "Several student and faculty members interviewed said they were aware of an affair between her and Fontenot."

Cops got wind of the saucy snaps after a pal of the student showed them to a detective.

Former English teacher Fruge has been charged with "prohibited sexual contact between an educator and a student" after turning herself in to officers in Eunice, Louisiana.

Waiter! There's a fire in my soup!

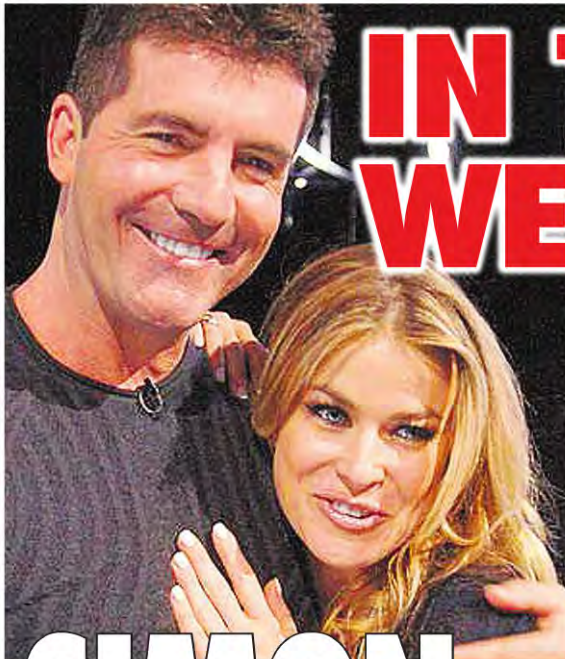

DOCTORS in China were stunned when they found a hole in a man's stomach after he ate a notoriously spicy bowl of soup.

The 26-year-old unnamed male had scoffed a portion of traditional mala soup – meaning "numbing hot".

After eating the red-hot treat, the man developed a piercing pain in his gut.

He was soon vomiting blood before being rushed to a hospital in Wuhan.

Fifteen per cent of stomach complaints at the hospital are related to spicy foods.

10 THINGS YOU DIDN'T KNOW ABOUT... THE YEAR 2013

WELL, 2012 with its predictions of cataclysm and apocalypse failed to live up to expectations.

All we had was one of the wettest years in the history of wetness, more slog through the mire of economic despondency and some, er...running.

So, will 2013 be any better?

We looked through the almanac for 10 things that you may or may not know about the dawning year.

1 2013 will be the first year to be denoted by four different digits (ie 2, 0, 1 and 3) since 1987.

2 On July 1 Croatia will join the European Union. The poor bastards have only just put their country back together again after the Serbs shelled it to dust – now they want Brussels to march in!

3 China will attempt to land a probe on the Moon. The poor bastards have only just put their country back together again after the Serbs shelled it to dust – now they want Brussels to march in!

4 India will send a probe to Mars. You may have thought that getting flushing toilets or stopping people dropping dead of leprosy in the street was of more pressing concern but, hey ho!

5 Comet Ison will shine in the night sky 15 times brighter than the Moon – leading, no doubt, to yet more end-of-the-world nutters donning tinfoil hats.

6 Yet another Hobbit film will be released. In The Desolation Of Smaug, the dwarfs, Bilbo and Gandalf have successfully escaped the misty mountains, but Bilbo has gained the one ring. They all continue their journey to get their gold back off the dragon, Smaug. Right then...

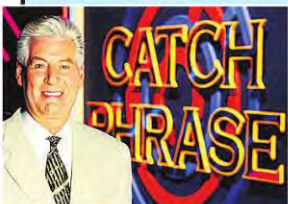

7 It's the 150th anniversary of the London Underground in 2013. So expect a strike to mark the momentous occasion.

8 The Eurovision Song Contest will be held in Malmö, Sweden. Presumably, being Sweden, the venue will be constructed with great difficulty and much swearing, using Allen keys.

9 TV show Catchphrase returns to our screens after a break of 10 years. Say what you see: "Shit!"

10 Phones which you will be able to roll up like paper will become available. Which will make it all the easier for you to shove one up a loud commuter's arse when they blether away sat next to you on a train!

JESSICA'S PICK OF THE DAY

 So you can bet I'll be watching the Big Fat Quiz of the Year (Channel 4, 9pm) tonight, since he's hosting it - should be a scream!

STEPH'S PICK OF THE DAY

IT'S the big one tonight, folks — all those Christmas parties have just been a warm-up for the raving all-nighter I'll be looking forward to.

The trick, I've learnt the hard way over the years, is not to start too early and get overexcited.

So I'll be making sure I get my full fix of Coronation Street (ITV1, 7.30pm and 8.30pm) before heading out onto the wild streets myself.

Lucy BeckerLUCY'S PICK OF THE DAY

I CAN'T see me crawling out of bed much before the middle of the afternoon today, and I won't be up to anything more than slobbering on the sofa watching the telly. Luckily, there's the perfect movie on for soothing sore heads and bringing you back to feeling like a human being again - Up (BBC1, 6.30pm). It's sad, funny, clever and looks wonderful. It's an animated movie, and you'll be feeling more animated when you've watched it!

IT'S one big night after another for Mel and I right now... and tomorrow's the biggest - New Year's Eve! I shudder to think how much we've necked over the festive period so it's going to have to be some hard hours in the gym to make up for it all. Well that, and a few more traditional ways of keeping the pounds off... if you know what I mean, boys! Let's just say we work well as a team!

STUDENTS TALK SEX!

FIRST-TIME SEX

LAURA: Tell us all about your first time? Was it good?

JANE: No! It was awful – I've tried very hard to forget it – it was embarrassing.

LAURA: It can't be that bad – come on spill the beans.

JANE: I was 16 and one of my friends had a party and invited a few people over including some lads from school.

One of them was really fit and I'd fancied him for ages. I was too nervous to speak to him so I ended up drinking a load of wine to pluck up the courage.

We ended up getting it on but I had to stop half way through to throw up. Oh my God, the shame!

LAURA: Ha ha, sorry mate but that is hilarious!

JANE: It was NOT funny at the time. I grabbed my clothes ran home and never dared to speak to him again! Anyway, come on then – what about you?

LAURA: I was 17 and it was with my ex-boyfriend. We'd been together a few months when his mum and dad went away for the weekend so I stayed over.

The first time was a bit rubbish but we did it several more times over the weekend and it got better and better every time!

FAVE POSITION

JANE: What's your favourite position?

LAURA: It has to be me on top. You just can't beat it. I can come again and again if I'm on top! What about you?

JANE: To be honest I haven't really got a favourite, it depends what mood I'm in. I like a variety – although I do like it standing up. I like it when a man takes charge and just flips me wherever he wants me! That gets me going!

If I've had a few drinks I'm pretty much up for trying anything! I reckon I could write my own Kama Sutra I've tried that many.

"I got to bonk my mate's fella and she didn't mind!"

THREESOMES

LAURA: Have you ever had a threesome?

JANE: No! I know I said I'd try anything but I'm not sure I could actually have a threesome.

I quite like the idea of it but I think I'd be too shy to actually go through with it. Never say never! What about you? Would you do it?

LAURA: Yeah I have once. It was wicked. My friend was seeing this fella and he was really fit.

We were on a night out and after a few drinks she told me he had been pestering her to have a threesome.

She was worried about it – she didn't want to say no but she didn't want to do it with a random stranger.

I told her I'd be up for it and you should have seen the fella's face – it was like he'd died and gone to heaven!

We'd all had a few drinks to get us in the mood and it was wicked.

I got to bonk my mate's gorgeous fella and she didn't mind!

KINKY ANTICS

JANE: So come on then, seeing as you are the adventurous one have you ever done anything kinky?

LAURA: I really like dressing up in the bedroom. I think it's great to put on stockings and suspenders and a pair of high heels – it never fails to get a man going!

Also I've got some dominatrix gear. My thigh-high leather boots and whip always go down well.

What about you then?
JANE: Ooh I love being a bit kinky! I have got a dominatrix outfit as well, and handcuffs. I quite like being tied up!

LAURA: Wow – you really have got a saucy side!

SEX TOYS

LAURA: Have you got any sex toys?
JANE: No I haven't actually. I did have a Rampant Rabbit but I forgot to pack it when I came to uni so it's still hidden in the back of a drawer at home!

LAURA: Oh my God! You need to get yourself another one quick!

JANE: To be honest I've been having so much sex that I haven't really missed it!

LAURA: I couldn't live without mine. My best friend bought it for me for my 18th birthday and it is seriously my most treasured possession.

Sometimes if I'm with a fella who is a bit crap in bed I'll get it out and finish the job off myself!

ONE-NIGHT STANDS

JANE: I bet you've had a few one-night stands Laura.

LAURA: Of course! Not that many though – I'm not a complete slag.

What about you?
JANE: I had one last night! I was meant to be staying in but then my flatmate came home with a bottle of vodka and got me really drunk and dragged me out to the pub!

There was a guy in there who is on her course and he was really good looking. He told her he fancied me and I couldn't believe my luck!

I dragged him back to ours and we had an amazing night. I've only had about two hours' sleep!

LAURA: You lucky thing!

BUM FUN

JANE: I tried it once by accident! Never again.

LAURA: No, no, no!

BEST SEX

LAURA: What about the best sex you've ever had?

JANE: I was seeing this guy for a few months just before I started uni and he was amazing in bed.

He was a few years older and I reckon it must have been the experience that made him so good. He loved foreplay and would go down on me for hours. It was bloody brilliant.

LAURA: He sounds amazing!

This is going to sound corny but the best sex I've ever had was with my ex-boyfriend back home.

We were together for just over a year and in that time we worked out exactly what we really liked and knew just how to turn each other on. One day we went out shopping together and I bought myself some new sexy underwear.

He was so turned on by the thought of me wearing it that he dragged me back to the car and we did it on the back seat – I didn't even have to put the underwear on!

WILLY SIZE

JANE: Do you think size matters?
LAURA: No not really. I think it's more about what they do with it.

How good they are at foreplay is more important than size, too. What do you think?

JANE: I think it does matter a bit. I mean, you don't want it to be too big but if it's too small it's not going to be great is it?

LAURA: No I guess not. I'd settle for medium to large!

Hitchhike squaddie's sex with 3 girls ordeal

A GANG of women kidnapped a soldier in broad daylight and forced him to have sex with them, one after the other.

Police spokesman Leonard Chabata said the unnamed military man, 32, thumbed a lift from a BMW with three women and a man inside.

The vehicle then took a detour into the countryside where the females allegedly gangraped the man.

One of the females reportedly sprayed the soldier with an unknown substance which rendered him helpless – then plied him with another drug to give him an erection.

Police say the man passed out after inhaling the substance.

Chabata added: "When the man gained consciousness he found he had been dumped in a bushy area about 100m away from the highway."

He also discovered his trousers and undergarments had been removed. All his belongings were at the scene where he was dumped.

Sensing that he had been violated, the man went to the Gweru Central Police Station, Zimbabwe, where he filed a report.

SEX ORGYBy BARNEY SAMUELS news@sundaysport.co.ukEVIL Robert Mugabe last week left his wrecked nation of Zimbabwe for three weeks in Thailand - to romp with LADYBOYS!

The 88-year-old dictator, whose iron fist rule had reduced the once-rich and fertile nation to ruin, only let it be known officially that he was spending his annual holiday "in Asia".

He had previously hinted that he would spend his vacation in China - the one of the few countries that will still welcome the syphilis-ridden tyrant.

But Sunday Sport can today reveal that sex-mad Mugabe is travelling to Pattaya in Thailand - a resort notorious for cut-price shemale hookers.

A source in Zimbabwe's capital, Harare, said: "President Mugabe has dropped hints that he will be holidaying in China, but it is well-known in government circles that he is off to Thailand as he's developed an obsession with ladyboys."

"A fellow African dictator - whom I cannot name - loaned him a DVD, Shemale Piss Frenzy #7, I believe, and since then the President has been fixated."CHICKS
WITH DICKS:
Thailand is famous for ladyboys

"It's bizarre, because Mugabe is one of the most homophobic people in the world. Maybe he thinks chicks with dicks don't count."

Doggie sex man's net surf ban breached

A MAN banned from owning dogs and going on the internet, after he paid a hooker to have sex with his pet pooch, has been caught surfing the web.

The man, who can't be named for legal reasons, was not viewing anything X-rated.

He was banned from owning his dog and any internet-capable device under the terms of his 12-month supervision which was imposed in June for one charge of indecency with an animal and 16 charges of possessing objectionable material.

The man was back in court last month trying to change the terms of his sentence – so he could take his dog home from a kennel and use the net – but his request was turned down.

Now the man from Manawatu, New Zealand, has admitted two charges of breaching his supervision.

The Feilding District Court heard he was caught with a smart phone on November 7.

And on November 27 an off-duty probation officer spotted him at a public library using the internet, although checks revealed he had not accessed porn sites.

The man was ordered to do 75 hours' community work.

Hooked on metal fan's handouts!

A HEAVY metal fan has won disability benefit after claiming he is addicted to THRASH.

Roger Tullgren, 42, who goes to 300 gigs a year, has convinced three psychologists to testify that his love for metal music is an addiction.

And his Job Centre in Hålsjöholm, Sweden, has now agreed to hand out cash so he can feed his obsession.

Had the dole office not paid out, Tullgren could have sued for discrimination.

Social commentator Björn Björnsson said: "This is political correctness gone mad!"

Dear Julia,

MY girlfriend has just started to train as a nurse and has got a pretty sexy uniform to go with it.

Our sex life has always been exciting but now it's even hornier. I can't help wanting sex with her every time she gets home from work.

She whips her panties and bra off before replacing her uniform. Then she bends right over so that her skirt rides up to reveal her hairy bush and I can't wait to slip a finger up her moist front playground.

And she goes really wild when I tickle her poo pipe at the same time.

But the best part is when I give her the "kiss of life" on her fanny.

She sits on my face while I give her a real good tonguing, while placing the whole of my mouth over her dripping love lips.

Doesn't my life sound great?

GH, East Lancs

Julia says...

SOUNDS like you're both getting a good deal out of this.

Dear Julia,

EVER since my hubby walked out on me three months ago I've cried myself to sleep - well, actually, I've frigged myself to sleep - most nights.

The one thing I used to love in the bedroom was what he called "finger pie".

I would lie there naked my legs wide apart and he'd play with my fanny lips before inserting one, then two, then three and sometimes four fingers in me and give me a good old friggung.

Since he's gone my sex drive seems to have gone up, rather than down, and I now find myself playing with my pussy night after night.

Do you think this is normal?

DE, Norwich

Julia says...

THERE'S nothing wrong with a good old play once in a while.

But you do seem to be overdoing it a little.

Perhaps it's time for you to start looking for another bloke.

Dear Julia,

I'VE started night classes to make friends because I'm a bit of a sad loser and don't have any.

But I never thought for a minute that the course would be full of other sad losers and I'd end up getting myself a girlfriend.

She's sex mad as she's not had it since she put on eight stone - and she gives amazing blow-jobs too.

She also lets me take her up the arse because she's just so grateful that I want to bang her.

And she sometimes invites a large friend round for a saucy threesome.

Even though she's fat, she's pretty and I'm made up that I'm getting my end away.

DA, Bucks

Julia says...

IT'S all about finding the right person for you.

I have found the ultimate mound

Dear Julia,

EVERY girl I have been out with has had a gorgeous love mound – you know, the curved bone at the bottom of the belly where their PUSSY begins.

I love stroking a girl's love mound, especially when they have shaved and I can see the beauty of the curve upwards to the peak of their lady bits.

Just thinking about it gets me horny.

But my latest conquest doesn't have a little mound – she has a love mountain!

We are talking about one overweight babe with an extra layer of flab that wobbles when I touch it.

I have never shagged a fat bird before, but I am a total fan now.

There's so much more body to explore and devour. But the best thing is how everything is accentuated.

At first, I noticed that her mouth seemed bigger and more inviting for my cock. That's when I decided to chat her up.

She was sitting at the bar in a tapas place, chatting to the barman and hovering up all the free foreign grub as she slurped her pint of lager.

Gagging

I got off on the fact that she was really enjoying herself, like I do when I'm out with the lads, rather than sipping a fizzy water while pushing a salad leaf around her plate like a lot of the skinny birds I have been out with in the past.

When I chatted to her I realised within no time at all that she was gagging for it.

She kept staring at my crotch as much as I was ogling her mammoth mammaries.

And when I got her home I realised that she had a pussy clump to match her fab chest mountains!

As soon as we were in the door she was ripping her clothes off like a mad woman and exposing her fabulous curves to me.

She didn't have any of that shyness or loathing that a lot of women have for their bodies.

It was lovely to be banging a bird who just wanted to get banged and who wasn't worrying about her love handles. (And they were love handles to rival her hilly chest and pussy terrain!)

As soon as she stripped off her knickers I was drawn to her pussy clump. It was magnificent and totally shaved and free of pubes. It looked like a sand dune smoothed by a warm coastal wind.

I had to drop to my knees there and then in the hallway to get a closer look. As I stroked her mound, she started moaning in approval.

That got me horny and I dived in there and started licking her slit.

We had sex in the hallway, then on the stairs before a third time in the bedroom.

The things she let me do were mind-blowing.

She would gobble me hard and then demand I rutted her roughly from behind.

She then mounted me like a rodeo rider and bounced up and down on my hard pole for ages.

The best bit, though, was that when she reached climax she squirted everywhere – what a turn-on!

So, all in all, she was a wonderful shag. I can't wait to f her again and again!

Julia says:

SO many guys say they have a type, like "big busted babes" or "blonde, tanned beauties".

But when it comes down to lust, you fancy who you fancy.

You like this girl because she's up for fun and sure of herself, which is very attractive.

I like guys up for adventure and with a twinkle in their eye... and what they look like and the size of their cocks come second to that.

Therefore I can understand why you are into someone who's not your "normal type".

Dear Julia,

I'VE been a ladies' hairdresser since I left school. I launched a mobile service and about a month ago I went to see a woman who was absolutely stunning.

Normally I deal with the blue-rinse brigade, but this lady was in her 30s and had tits to die for.

As I was cutting her hair I accidentally brushed my groin against her and she smiled as she felt the erection I was sporting.

And she continued to smile as she started to rub my hard cock and then slowly unzipped my trousers.

It was my turn to smile as she took my eight-inch into her mouth and slurped on my manhood before we moved upstairs and fed each other senseless for the next three hours.

Now she's a regular weekend customer – and it's very rare that I get to sort out her hair.

Now I'm wondering if I should start charging her for my extra services. What do you think?

Julia says...

NO. Just accept it as a perk of the job.

Julia says...

THERE's a lot to be said for getting out in the fresh air and finding out about nature, and that.

And, of course, it's a great way of meeting people – especially members of the opposite sex.

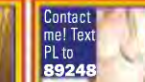

That said, you should always take care while thrutching in a boat because a capsizing – especially at this time of year when the water's freezing – could easily turn into a tragedy.

Before you even get to the fingering stage, make sure your partner knows how to swim and the basics of the capsizing drill.

REVOLUTIONARY: Greig

Cricket pays respects to innovator Tony Greig

CRICKET

TRIBUTES have poured in for former England captain Tony Greig, who died on Saturday at the age of 66.

South African-born Greig passed away at his home in Sydney after suffering a heart attack. He had been fighting lung cancer for more than two months.

Credited with revolutionising the game, he replaced Mike Denness as England skipper in 1975 before defecting to be one of the spearheads of Kerry Packer's World Series Cricket.

He later went on to become a much-loved commentator in Australia.

Giant

ECB chief executive David Collier said: "Tony Greig was an extremely talented all-round cricketer and captain."

"He was a giant of a man who played a major role in the changing face of cricket during the 1970s."

"He will be fondly remembered for his informed commentaries, his embracing of innovation to enhance the game, including day and night cricket, as well as his performances on the field of play."

"He will be much missed in cricketing circles, both in this country and around the world."

Nasser Hussain, who captained England between 1999 and 2003, hailed Greig for ushering in a new era of "dramatic" cricket with his decision to join Packer's revolution.

Dramatic

Hussain said: "It was huge. Cricket was an amateur game before."

"But because of Tony and Kerry Packer, suddenly the world realised that they had to start paying their cricketers."

"One-day cricket became much more dramatic with the coloured clothing and the white balls and another form of cricket was invented."

"The establishment had to follow as interest in the game grew because of what he achieved. He was the sort of guy who didn't take a backward step against anybody."

My Fab Four for 2013

BRITAIN'S best youngsters delivered at the London 2012 Olympics, but surprisingly only one of the squad – Anthony Ogogo – has turned professional so far.

The big star promoters want to land super-heavyweight gold medalist Anthony Joshua, who is still contemplating whether to remain amateur until after the 2016 Olympics or switch in 2013.

There are still plenty of young hopefuls already turned professional who Sunday Sport expects to deliver in 2013 and for years to come.

Here are the Fab Four I reckon can go to the very top.

GLOVELY FUTURE:
Yafai is the hottest prospect in the UK

KHALID YAFAI

From: Birmingham
Age: 23
Division: Bantamweight
Pro record: 6-0

YAFAI is perhaps the best current professional prospect in the country and it seems certain that he will win a British title in 2013. He has impressed in every fight and will be back in action on January 19.

He said: "I have had a dream start to my pro career because Eddie Hearn has kept me so busy. "There are expectations because Eddie has talked me up from the beginning, but I have been backing that up with good performances."

BRADLEY SAUNDERS

From: Stockton-On-Tees
Age: 26
Division: Welterweight
Pro record: 5-0

LIKE Yafai, Saunders boxed at the 2008 Olympics and had a fantastic 183-fight amateur career.

He has made a fantastic start to his pro career and is looked after by underrated trainer Ronnie Brown in Birmingham and Peter Cope in Hartlepool.

The Frank Warren-promoted fighter showed he was the real deal defeating tough Peter McDonagh five weeks ago.

Cope said: "If Bradley does not win the minimum of a British title he will have under-achieved. He is absolutely top class – he has got all the tools."

MITCHELL SMITH

From: London
Age: 20
Division: Super-featherweight
Pro record: 5-0

SMITH has gained valuable exposure on dedicated fight channel BoxNation that has been successful for over a year.

He took up boxing when he was six and was good enough to win junior and senior ABA titles.

On his pro debut, the 5ft 5in battler impressively took out solid journeyman James Ancliff and continues to improve.

Smith said: "People thought we may have been going in too deep with Ancliff, but I had good amateur pedigree and was in great shape for anyone."

FRANK BUGLIONI

From: London
Age: 23
Division: Super-middleweight
Pro record: 7-0

"THE Wise Guy" is one of the biggest ticket sellers in British boxing, shifting around 700 tickets every time he fights.

Buglioni, who is trained by Jimmy and Mark Tibbs, has also gained experience sparring with James DeGale and George Groves.

There is still a long way to go, and Buglioni has to tighten up his defence at times – a problem he recognises.

But if he continues his winning streak and gets to British title level in about two years, good-looking Buglioni could be filling venues like Wembley Arena.

TONY: I'LL PRICE HIM OUT

TONY THOMPSON believes he is capable of shattering David Price's (right) world title dreams next month.

American's two-time world title challenger becomes the 6ft 8in Scouser's toughest opponent when they clash at Liverpool's Echo Arena on February 23. Thompson said: "When I beat him, it puts me back in the picture and will help me get a third meeting with Wladimir Klitschko."

"He wants to beat me and get to the next level, but I will show I am not done."

IT'S MERV PAYNE WITH A FAN'S VIEW OF THE FOOTIE WEEK

2012: The year we proved we aren't completely useless

IT'S that time of the year when we reflect on the sporting highs and lows of the previous 12 months and look forward to another roller-coaster ride ahead of us.

2012 was quite unique in that, for once, football was overshadowed by running, cycling, hopping, skipping, anything vaguely sporty in fact.

I'm talking about the Olympics and Paralympics, of course, and it was no bad thing that we had something else to get excited about other than the mandatory penalty shootout tournament exit for England.

The year was perfectly capped off by the England cricket team's Test series victory in India and winning the last Twenty20 match with a big Eoin Morgan six on the last ball.

As for 2013, I'm hoping they'll be adding T20 cricket and darts to the Olympic disciplines.

I'm also looking forward to this amazing new initiative the powers that be have lined up - British culture classes for foreign footballers.

I think it should be televised. It'll be great, just like the hit 70s sitcom Mind Your Language.

WHAT A REFFIN' PALAVA

REFEREES have been in the news a lot in the last week.

The most annoying thing about the disallowed and then allowed Evans own goal in the Man United v Newcastle match (apart from the fact that, in an almost identical incident at the play-off final in 2011, my team Millwall had a goal ruled out) was the time spent fanning about.

Yet they say that video technology won't work because of the delay!

In front of me in the line yesterday was Andrew Mitchell with his box set of The Bill.

But causing the biggest delay of all was Harry Redknapp trying to find the receipts for all the crap he's been lumbered with at QPR so he can chuck them back to make room for his buys in the January sales.

A quick bit of advice for anyone planning to interview 'Arry in the next few weeks - whatever you do, DON'T accuse him of being a "wheeler dealer".

If you want to know why, just Google "Redknapp wheeler dealer interview"... but not in front of the kids!

48 - that's the number of managerial appointments in 2012.

That's more than half the teams in the Football League and Premier League.

MERV'S FACT HUNT

LAST week I asked: Which two players who share the same Christian name played in the last FA Cup final and the last England international at the old Wembley?

The answer is the two Gareths, Southgate and Barry, who played for Aston Villa in the last Wembley FA Cup final defeat to Chelsea and England's 1-0 World Cup qualifier defeat to Germany. Maybe they should have both been called Jonah.

This week's Fact Hunt is: Who is the only player to be substituted in an international match at Wembley to be replaced by his brother?

SIR ALEX FERGUSON lost the plot last weekend when he claimed that kicking a football at a player's head was tantamount to attempted murder.

The Man United manager was incensed after Swansea's Ashley Williams lashed a ball at Robin van Persie's head while he was on the ground.

He called it "the most dangerous thing" he'd ever seen on a football pitch.

Fergie can't have been looking then when Eric Cantona kung-fu kicked a fan at Selhurst Park.

Scandalous

And he must have been absent when United thug and former captain Roy Keane made a scandalous challenge on Alf-Inge Haaland that ended his career.

The purple-nosed boss was so outraged he is said to be backing a new campaign to "kick footballs out of football".

It does make you wonder, though, if Sir Alex does have a point

I have not seen a Scotsman so angry since, well, the last time I was in a pub in Scotland.

Despite his age his passion for the game is still flaming and I reckon it will help his team to win a 13th Premier League title under his watch.

MY GIRLFRIEND must be the slowest reader ever.

I bought her a Kindle the Christmas before last and she still hasn't finished it.

Harry Redknapp needs his bottom-of-the-pile Queens Park Rangers to pick up some points soon or their season will be finished, and I reckon they'll pinch a win against Liverpool at Loftus Road this afternoon.

I ALWAYS struggle around this time of year because I'm addicted to Christmas dinner leftovers.

It all started one year when I was trying to give up the fags and was told to go cold turkey.

Fat Frank Lampard looks like a man who enjoys second helpings and he should help his Chelsea side take three points off Everton today.

KOP STARS WON'T

QPR v LIVERPOOL

Live on Sky Sports 1 - Kick-off 4pm

BRENDAN RODGERS is convinced he can keep Liverpool's big guns - even if their Champions League exile is extended into a fourth season.

Top striker Luis Suarez (left) was persuaded to pen a new Kop contract in the summer despite the Reds again missing out on Europe's most prestigious competition.

Rodgers is attempting to turn Liverpool around on a fraction of the cash that has been splashed in recent years.

But he is certain that the likes of Suarez and Daniel Agger will stay on, even if the Reds fail to force their way into the top four.

Rodgers said: "The players need to feel there is hope."

"Whatever you do in life - whether it be a reporter, manager, football player - if you

Now Rafa is really happy to be Blue

RAFA BENITEZ says he is a changed man since taking charge of Chelsea.

The Blues boss takes his side to Everton today and the former Liverpool chief knows he is in for a red-hot reception.

But Benitez reckons Chelsea are now capable of ensuring he doesn't leave Merseyside red-faced after a dramatic upturn in form.

The Stamford Bridge men have turned their season around since the Spaniard took charge and are eyeing a seventh win in eight games.

Freedom

But Benitez refuses to take all the credit for himself.

He said: "To be fair, I am more adapting myself to them, so I know what I want and what we are trying to achieve – but the main thing is the feedback from them."

"We listen to them and adjust things in the way we want but give them some freedom and we have a good balance."

"They are keen to learn and that's the main thing as a manager."

"I wanted to manage a top side and Chelsea is a top side, so I am really pleased. I am happy watching the players train and work so hard and win."

"We are winning games in a row and showing character. I am really happy and they are responding really well."

The highlight of Benitez's brief reign has been the 8-0 thrashing of Aston Villa.

"You could see against Villa we were thinking about the attack, but we have to be strong in defence and a clean sheet is also positive," he added.

"The players have more confidence if they know they can go forward and the defence is alright."

"Balance is key in any top side."

David Moyes believes Everton will never seek to adopt Roman Abramovich's ruthless sacking strategy – because they can't afford the pay-offs!

Chelsea are on their ninth manager since Moyes took over at Goodison in 2001.

Abramovich has splashed out £75million sacking seven of those bosses, but the Blues have still plundered seven trophies since 2005.

Moyes has brought stability to Everton and is the third-longest serving boss in the Premier League after Sir Alex Ferguson and Arsene Wenger.

He admits Everton's supporters would swap that consistency for silverware, but insists the club could never consider adopting the same hire 'em and fire 'em approach.

Moyes said: "I think the fans would like to see that, but they also know it can't be done because you couldn't afford to keep paying the managers off."

Sensation

Moyes also revealed that he was chasing Eden Hazard when the Belgian star was just a youngster at Lille.

Hazard, 21, has been a sensation since his £32million switch to Stamford Bridge.

Moyes said: "Because of Marouane Fellaini and the Belgium boys, we knew all about Hazard."

"But it was always going to be bigish cash for us."

We'll find a way to cope without Yaya, says Platt

MANCHESTER CITY assistant boss David Platt accepts the Premier League champions must find a way to deal with the loss of Yaya Toure.

The inspirational midfielder and his centre-back brother Kolo will head to South Africa to play in the African Nations Cup with Ivory Coast next month.

The pair, and particularly Yaya, were badly missed when they played at the tournament last season, with City hitting a run of patchy form.

Their last game for Roberto Mancini's side will be the FA Cup third round tie against Watford on January 5.

And they may not be in action again for City until the home Premier League clash with Chelsea seven weeks later, depending on results in South Africa.

Quality

Platt said: "I'm not too sure how many games Yaya is gone for, but it's something we have known about and will have to deal with."

"We lost him last year and won the league."

"The kind of player he is, it would be more beneficial to have him and it's similar with Kolo."

"But we will get on with it. It's like an injury, you want the full complement to choose from."

"We have a dressing room full of quality players and we have to cope with it."

There is speculation

MISSING: Yaya Toure

City could look to strengthen their squad during the January transfer window.

But Platt said: "The type of player that would benefit one of the top clubs, not just Manchester City, is likely to be involved at a top club who are chasing honours and wouldn't want to let them go."

"So I wouldn't be surprised if we didn't do any business."

Film star Ali KO's talk of coaching job at Blackburn

JUDAN ALI has denied he is set to become part of the coaching set-up at Blackburn.

Ali, a 39-year-old amateur and youth coach, became a figure of intrigue following reports that he and former Aston Villa assistant boss Kevin MacDonald were set to take up roles at Ewood Park in the wake of Henning Berg's sacking as manager.

Rovers' global advisor Shebby Singh was forced to deny these claims and rejected the notion that he took training alongside Ali ahead of today's Championship trip to Barnsley.

Ali has been described as a Bollywood actor, owing to his part in the 2007 film Dhan Dhan Dhan Goal.

Minnows

The film is based on his experiences as a youngster in London from an ethnic minority background trying to make the grade as a professional footballer.

Ali was a trainee at Arsenal but ended up at Spanish minnows Murcia after failing to find a club in England.

"I ended up working on the movie to recruit and coach and train the footballers and the actors," he explained.

When asked whether he was being lined up for a position at Rovers, Ali insisted: "Not at all. I've had no intentions of coaching here."

"It's for my personal development, observing how a professional club is operated and structured for elite players."

"I've not come here to look at the playing side of the business at all."

"It's to see how the club is, the facilities, the sports science."

"I've not come in to critique, judge or even take notes on how the training sessions are delivered by any members of the coaching team."

feel there is hope, then you can get committed to it.

"Steven Gerrard has been terrific for me, Luis Suarez has been great, Daniel Agger has played consistently all season and been outstanding."

"These are players that have all committed to the cause here, so they obviously feel there is hope that the model will work."

Harry Redknapp faces an anxious wait over whether skipper Ryan Nelsen will be fit.

The QPR manager said: "We're hopeful. He went down with a virus before the West Brom game."

"The doctor will give me an update, but if there's anyone who can play with an illness or injury it's Ryan."

"He's one of those lads that gives absolutely everything."

Redknapp is planning a January recruitment drive to boost his side's survival hopes.

"I've identified the positions that need strengthening, I've not got a specific number in mind," he added.

HUDDERSFIELD 0 SHEFF WED 0

REFEREE Mick Russell admitted he blundered by booking Owls winger Jeremy Helan twice – and not sending him off.

Russell wrongly marked up the first yellow card to Michail Antonio and apologised to angry Town boss Simon Grayson.

Grayson said: "It's a genuine mistake, but these things should not happen in Championship football."

There were few clear chances, though Town keeper Alex Smithies saved well in stoppage time from Reda Johnson.

James Vaughan nearly won it for the Terriers with a long-range blast that flew just wide.

BRISTOL CITY 4 PETERBOROUGH 2

SAM BALDOCK'S brace helped City to their first home win since August.

Paul Anderson headed them into a fifth-minute lead and six minutes later Posh striker Lee Tomlin saw red for felling defender Greg Cunningham.

Darren Ferguson's side equalised through Grant McCann's penalty, but Baldock restored City's lead on 37 minutes and Stephen McManus headed their third on the hour.

Baldock then scored his second penalty before Dwight Gayle's late consolation.

BOLTON 3 BIRMINGHAM 1

BOLTON shrugged off their Fright Christmas to squeeze a second win out of December.

Boss Dougie Freedman needed to get back on track after defeats by strugglers Peterborough and Sheffield Wednesday.

Brum led but it finished badly as scorer Nikola Zigic was sent off for two quick yellows.

Zigic's 12th-minute diving header was cancelled out by Marcos Alonso after 26 minutes.

Then Chung-Yong Lee rounded keeper Jack Butland before netting from a narrow angle.

And Keith Andrews tied up the points with a 78th-minute spot-kick.

BURNLEY 0 LEICESTER 1

FORMER England striker David Nugent enjoyed a happy return to Turf Moor as his first-half strike ensured a win for play-off chasing Leicester.

A dull game was decided on the half hour when Foxes skipper Wes Morgan crossed to ex-Claret Nugent who finished in trademark style from close range.

The home side came back straight away, with a good chance falling to sub Martin Paterson.

He had replaced 23-goal front man Charlie Austin, but Leicester easily held firm to secure the win.

Hill's fortune Tykes turn for the worse

KEITH HILL, paid with his job at Oakwell as manager-less Blackburn won for the first time in seven matches.

Ex-Rochdale boss Hill was given the boot after first-half goals from Joshua King (above) and Ruben Rochina and a late Jordan Rhodes strike made it 11 games without a win at home.

Indian actor Judan Ali was rumoured to be involved with the coaching set-up but wasn't in the Rovers dug-out. Man Utd loanee King bundled the ball past Luke Steele before Rochina blasted in a fierce left-foot drive.

BARNSELY 1 BLACKBURN 2

MICK MASTERMINDS MOLINEUX MAULING

IPSWICH boss Mick McCarthy oversaw a victorious return to Molineux with his side running out easy winners.

Sacked by Wolves in February, McCarthy took up the reins with Ipswich in November and is guiding them away from danger.

His team opened the scoring when left-back Aaron Cresswell punished Wolves' inability to clear the danger.

WOLVES 0 IPSWICH 2

the edge of the box he struck with a superb curling shot that gave Carl Ikeme no chance.

Halfway through the second half DJ Campbell made the game safe, latching onto Luke Chambers headed clearance and coolly slotting home.

BRIGHTON 1 WATFORD 3

TWO Matej Vydra goals gave Gianfranco Zola the bragging rights over his old pal Gus Poyet.

The Czech striker scored twice in two minutes just after David Lopez had levelled from the spot for Albion.

Troy Deeney opened the scoring in the 54th minute from Daniel Pudil's precise pass.

Then 10 minutes later Watford's 17-year-old defender Tommie Hoban gave away a needless penalty which Lopez duly despatched.

N FOREST 2 C PALACE 2

BILLY SHARP saved new Forest boss Alex McLeish with a late equaliser.

McLeish faced a losing return to management after Glenn Murray's double for Palace either side of Andy Reid's strike.

But Sharp saved the match in the third minute of injury-time.

Murray opened the scoring after nine minutes but Reid levelled it in first-half injury time.

MIDDLESBRO 4 BLACKPOOL 2

TOM INCE suffered penalty misery as Boro hung on for a dramatic win.

Blackpool's Liverpool-bound midfielder saw his 81st-minute spot-kick saved by Jason Steele to help Middlesbrough claim a fourth straight home win.

Sub Adam Reach made it 4-2 with two minutes to prevent the Seaside getting a valuable point.

Boro went two up thanks to Ishmael Miller and Richard Smallwood.

But Blackpool hit back twice through neat finishes from Wes Thomas and Chris Basham either side of Scott McDonald's 10th goal of the campaign – thrashed home from 20 yards.

CHARLTON 1 DERBY 1

CHARLTON and Derby shared the spoils at a wet Valley as both teams managed to end their losing streaks.

Derby had the first chance of the game after 10 minutes when Ben Davies' free-kick was fisted over by keeper Ben Hamer.

Danny Haynes then stunned the Rams with a spectacular solo effort on 20 minutes.

Cedric Evina forced Adam Legzdins into a save three minutes after the restart.

MALKY GETS A MESSAGE FROM RUDY

RUDY GESTEDE sent a message to Malky Mackay by firing an early winner for table-toppers Cardiff.

The French striker marked his first start of the season with the only goal in the eighth minute.

It was Gestede's second of the campaign to keep the Welsh side at the summit.

But Millwall will feel they did enough to earn a point after seeing chances go begging.

Cardiff began like a train with Craig Noone crossing for Gestede to fire home from eight yards out.

Noone was causing plenty of problems and he almost doubled the lead.

Millwall had barely had a kick but missed a golden chance.

Liam Trotter's cross found

CARDIFF 1 MILLWALL 0

Darius Henderson in space but he could only head at David Marshall.

But the Cardiff goalkeeper was tested by the same man within 60 seconds.

Henderson had a glancing header that Marshall palmed out, with James Henry ballooning over the rebound.

Nerves

Craig Bellamy saw his cross for substitute Jordan Mutch blocked by Jimmy Abdou.

Mutch was again denied as his 25-yard shot was beaten out by David Forde.

Bellamy should have settled nerves when his shot hit the top of the net in the 63rd minute – but in the end it mattered little.

league to their opponents, who barely got a kick and were lucky to end with 11 men.

Evans (left) cracked a low drive beyond Paddy Kenny after Robert Koren's pass and then Meyler, on loan from Sunderland, nodded in Robbie Brady's corner.

been all City, with Sone Aluko denied a clear penalty.

Koren was one of many who were guilty of missing chances, most notably when Alan Tate's back pass fell short and he scuffed his one-on-one opportunity.

Hull could have played in dinner jackets if they had wanted, with Leeds' tactics baffling.

Seventeen-goal star Luciano Becchio was benched and they had one chance of note, Tom Lees hitting over early in the first half.

Hero Len Spurs AVB to claim a Euro spot

SPURS boss Andre Villas-Boas threw down a challenge to his old club Chelsea in the race for the Champions League after this victory on Wearside.

Tottenham have never lost when Aaron Lennon has scored, and he kept up that amazing run.

The England winger struck the winner six minutes after the break as Spurs came from behind in startling style at the Stadium of Light.

AVB's men scored twice in three minutes, but only got back into the it thanks to Carlos Cuellar's own goal.

Sunderland had gone ahead on 40 minutes with stand-in skipper John O'Shea's first goal for the club.

But Villas-Boas saw his side stretch their unbeaten run to four games and grab third spot ahead of the Blues' visit to Everton today.

SUNDERLAND 1
TOTTENHAM 2

The win came at a price, however, as the inspirational Gareth Bale was booked for diving in the area late on and now misses the New Year's Day home game with Reading.

The Wales ace, who hit a hat-trick in the 4-0 Boxing Day win at Aston Villa, began by centring for Emmanuel Adebayor, whose toe-poke brought a low stop from Simon Mignolet.

Whipped

The keeper then saved at the second attempt when Sandro produced an angled shot, and also needed to come out quickly to foil Adebayor.

The Black Cats had a huge let-off on the half hour when Adebayor incredibly fired against the bar from only a few yards out.

But against the run of play Sunderland struck when Seb Larsson curled in a free-kick and, after Steven Fletcher's effort was blocked by keeper Hugo Lloris, O'Shea shot into an empty net.

Spurs levelled soon after the restart when Cuellar and Craig Gardner both went for Kyle Walker's corner and the Spaniard headed into his own net.

It got worse for the Black Cats when Lennon's attempted pass ricocheted off Matt Kilgallon back into the winger's path and he slotted past Mignolet.

Bale made a surging run from inside his own half and crossed for Jermain Defoe, who was denied brilliantly by Mignolet.

The keeper then kept out Adebayor when he was clean through as Spurs held on to win.

ED BOY MAKES UP FOR NASRI'S RED END

NORWICH 3
MAN CITY 4

EDIN DZEKO showed he is more than a super-sub by grabbing two goals as 10-men Man City edged a rip-roarer at Carrow Road.

Most of the Bosnian's seven goals before this win have come after starting on the bench.

But with Mario Balotelli injured and Carlos Tevez rested, Dzeko shone from the start.

Even though Samir Nasri was dismissed a minute before the break when he reacted ferociously to a tough tackle from Sebastien Bassong, the Blues were ruthless.

Bassong stood his ground as Nasri shoved his head into the defender's face.

After taking advice from an assistant, referee Mike Jones sent him off.

Roberto Mancini's men carved the Canaries open easier than a festive turkey as Dzeko grabbed his first after 80 seconds.

He then scored his second on four minutes when Vincent Kompany won the ball in midfield and fed Sergio Agüero, who pulled back for Dzeko to beat Mark Bunn again.

Dismissal

But the champions have shown a soft underbelly this campaign and after conceding a free-kick 20 yards out they were stung.

Anthony Pilkington's strike took a deflection off Gael Clichy and wrong-footed Joe Hart.

Nasri's dismissal failed to put City off their stride and five minutes after the break Agüero nipped in to poke a shot past Bunn.

But the Canaries hit back again after Hart turned a Harry Kane shot away for a corner.

Robert Snodgrass' set-piece was headed back across goal by Bassong and Russell Martin steered the ball home.

Dzeko almost scored the fourth, but his near-post shot went down as an own goal after deflecting in off Bunn.

Norwich refused to roll over and Martin smashed in off Hart's head after a scramble in the box.

CAM SLAM A BRIT SPECIAL

CAMERON JEROME'S super strike earned Stoke a point in a thriller at the Britannia.

Rickie Lambert put Saints in front early on before Kenwyne Jones equalised.

But Jay Rodriguez and an own goal from Andy Wilkinson looked set to give Southampton a vital three points.

Then, in the 90th minute, Jerome (left) caught the ball on the half-volley to send the home fans wild as the Potters remained unbeaten at home since February.

Stoke went behind early on as Lambert pounced on poor defending in the 10th minute.

Tony Pulis' side may have a reputation for playing "ugly football", but their equaliser six minutes later was a thing of beauty.

Ryan Shotton slid the ball across the area for Jones, who back-heeled through Jos Hooiveld's legs and in.

Without the suspended Ryan Shawcross Stoke were struggling at the back and Southampton went ahead again in the 24th minute as Rodriguez tapped home.

The third came for the Saints 12 minutes later when Wilkinson found his own net. Stoke were gifted a way back into the game in the 65th minute after a scramble in the area that saw Jones' shot blocked by Jose Fonte and Matthew Upson fired home.

Stoke then had a man sent off as Steven Nzonzi launched into a challenge on Jack Cork and was shown a red card.

But they got their late bonus as Jerome fired in a stunner to rescue a point from 30 yards.

THEO DOES THE TRICK AFTER TAKING TIPS FROM THIERRY

ARSENAL 7
NEWCASTLE 3

THEO WALCOTT has been taking tips in finishing from Arsenal legend Thierry Henry – and it paid off as the wannabe centre-forward hit a brilliant hat-trick to blow Newcastle away.

The Gunners flew out of the blocks and could have been in front inside the first 40 seconds. Jack Wilshere picked out Alex Oxlade-Chamberlain but the England youngster dragged his shot well wide.

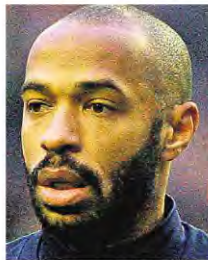

Newcastle should have taken the lead when Sylvain Marveaux's corner picked out Demba Ba.

The striker had all the time in the world to apply the finish but his effort sailed well over the bar.

Alan Pardew's men were made to pay as Lukas Podolski released Walcott in acres of space down the left flank.

The England star has been learning from the best this week as Henry trains with the Gunners.

And Walcott showed he has definitely been paying attention as he produced a stunning finish to leave Tim Krul with no chance.

TEACHER: Henry

Powerful

It was his fourth goal in six games since moving from his usual position on the wing.

Things almost got even better for Walcott seven minutes before the break as Podolski's ball found him on the edge of the box, but this time Krul was equal to his shot.

Cheick Tioté saw his powerful drive tipped over by Wojciech Szczesny.

But Toon levelled a minute before the break when Ba's free-kick struck unlucky Wilshere on the back of the head and deflected in.

The Gunners were back in front in the 50th minute.

Santi Cazorla's pass across the face of the area found its way through to Oxlade-Chamberlain and the winger smashed his shot into the net.

Newcastle hit back again when Gabriel Obertan's cross took a slight deflection off Thomas Vermaelen to leave Marveaux with the easiest of tap-ins at the far post.

The Gunners were back in front when Wilshere's brilliant cross was deflected onto the bar by Fabricio Coloccini and Podolski bundled the ball home.

Incredibly, Newcastle came back again as Marveaux's cross picked out Ba to score at the back post.

Another brilliant piece of finishing from Walcott gave Arsenal a 4-3 lead.

Sub Olivier Giroud weighed in with two quick goals before Walcott wrapped it up with his hat-trick strike.

Van Persie sends out a message after his strike

By IAN WHITTELL

SIR ALEX FERGUSON was all smiles at Old Trafford as United ended the year seven points clear.

An early own goal by Gareth McAuley, from Ashley Young's shot, and a late blast from sub Robin van Persie wrapped up the win.

And after slaughtering the officials in their last home game, the United boss even managed a couple of JOKES with the linesman as he masterminded the win.

Fergie gambled by leaving Van Persie and Javier Hernandez – two of the heroes of the thrilling Boxing Day win over Newcastle – on the bench.

So the fact that the recalled Young and fit-again Shinji Kagawa, starting for the first time since October, had a hand in the opener looked another Fergie masterstroke.

After nine minutes, Young played a one-two with Kagawa and sprinted on before drilling the ball home from a narrow angle, with the help of a deflection off McAuley.

Smother

West Brom had started brightly with a Shane Long break halted by Michael Carrick and an appeal by the Baggies striker for a pen after Chris Smalling's challenge.

United were spurred on by the sight of skipper Nemanja Vidic rising to power over a header from Young's eighth minute corner.

The goal soon followed and Tom Cleverley almost helped stretch the lead with a long, diagonal ball that nearly let in Danny Welbeck.

Kagawa kept that attack going and eventually set up Welbeck for an 18-yarder which Ben Foster dived to smother.

Kagawa and Cleverley combined with a couple of one-twos that opened a way for Carrick to try his luck with a shot that was charged down.

Welbeck hit a wild shot which found Young loitering near the six-yard line, but the winger's off-balance header flew wide.

Young came close to doubling the lead when his 18-yard drive was tipped onto the bar by Foster's blinding reflex reaction.

Pog's Hammer blow

PAVEL POGREBANYAK gave Reading the perfect end to 2012 as his goal gave the Royals their first win in nine games.

The Russian hitman's winner came after only five minutes and relieves the pressure on manager Brian McDermott as well as giving Reading a platform to stage the great relegation escape in 2013.

Reading have been in need of a helping hand – and James Collins decided to give them just that five minutes in.

The Hammers defender woefully underhit his back-pass under pressure from Pogrebnayak and the Russian latched on to the ball and slotted under Jussi Jaaskelainen before celebrating (right).

Reading hassled and harried the Hammers whenever they had the ball, but struggled to create chances as too often their final pass was wayward.

West Ham weren't much better and their only effort of note came from Winston Reid whose header was tipped over by Adam Federici.

Stamp

Collins' day went from bad to worse as his booking for a foul on Pogrebnayak before half-time ruled him out of the game with Norwich on New Year's Day.

West Ham got better in the second half, but Carlton Cole headed over before twice escaping punishment from the officials for a kick at Alex Pearce and a stamp on Chris Gunter.

Reading defended heroically but almost put the result beyond doubt when Jem Karacan's shot arrowed toward the top corner, only for Jaaskelainen to produce a fingertip save and divert the ball onto the crossbar.

Ricardo Vaz Te and Jack Collison came off the bench for the Hammers and had chances to level, but Federici denied Collison and Vaz Te headed inexplicably wide with the goal gaping.

That turned out to be West Ham's last chance as Reading held on for a vital three points.

yet another chance, with Carrick's goal-bound drive booted to safety by Gabriel Tamas.

Peter Odemwingie gave the Baggies fans a rare reason to cheer before the break as he planted a shot into the side netting.

And there were a couple of Chris Brunt free-kicks that offered brief hope.

United opened the second half with a couple of patient build-ups before Brunt reminded them that they really needed the cushion of a second goal.

He was given time and space 25 yards out to try his luck with a blast which David de Gea got down sharply to gather.

That was followed by a threatening McAuley header from a set-piece as the Baggies sniffed blood.

But, with Antonio Valencia becoming an increasingly influential figure, United were soon pushing Steve Clarke's depleted side onto the back foot.

Valencia had a wicked drive deflected behind, then picked out Young with a perfect cross only for his team-mate to completely miss his kick.

Valencia was booked for hacking at Odemwingie before he shot over from a tight angle.

Fergie brought on Van Persie to try to wrap it up, but United almost fell to a sucker punch from Brunt's 70th-minute corner which McAuley met and headed against the bar.

Van Persie could have eased the growing nerves eight minutes from time when Patrice Evra played him in, but Foster stuck out a leg to save.

The Albion keeper also did well to dive and stop Welbeck's curling effort with a minute to go.

But with two seconds on the clock, Van Persie took a short pass from Valencia, darted back outside the area and made room to launch an unstoppable shot over Foster's head.

ON TARGET: Graham

Michu not missed as Dan's back with a bang

FULHAM 1
SWANSEA 2

DANNY GRAHAM made up for missing Michu – and piled the pressure on free-falling Fulham.

Graham stepped in for only his second start in 10 weeks when leading scorer Michu was ruled out with an ankle problem.

And the striker responded with his first league goal since August to put the Swans on course for victory.

They were helped on their way to three points by a horror gaffe from stand-in Fulham keeper David Stockdale.

Stockdale's shocking clearance gifted Jonathan De Guzman the chance to double the lead in the second half.

And although Fulham responded through man-of-the-match Bryan Ruiz, they couldn't find a way to save the game.

Martin Jol's side have now won just one of their last 12 matches and are slipping dangerously close to the relegation zone.

Bossed

Things started to go wrong when Stockdale could only parry Nathan Dyer's 19th-minute cross and Graham acrobatically volleyed in the rebound.

That gave Swansea the momentum they needed and they bossed the game until the break.

Stockdale blundered again in the 53rd minute when he collected a back-pass from Sascha Riether and hacked his clearance straight at team-mate Brede Hangeland.

The ball bounced to Pablo Hernandez who squared for De Guzman to finish.

Fulham had stepped up the pace with Ruiz at the heart of their best moves.

And the Costa Rican gave the Cottagers a lifeline with a controversial strike in the 56th minute after heading against the bar.

Dimitar Berbatov collected the rebound and shot on the turn, with the ball bouncing to Ruiz.

Ruiz struck the ball home off the legs of Riether – and referee Andre Marriner allowed the goal to stand despite claims for offside.

RAM RAID SPARKS ANOTHER LEAKY VILLA HORROR SHOW

IVAN RAMIS led the way as Wigan dealt Aston Villa yet another spanking to leave Paul Lambert's men hovering above the drop zone.

Villa were reeling after conceding 12 goals in two hammerings against Chelsea and Tottenham.

And Lambert's side were a goal down after two minutes when Ramis thumped home a header.

Emmerson Boyce and Arouna Kone added two more after the interval and disgruntled Villa fans headed for the exits with 30 minutes still to play.

As well as leaking goals left, right and centre, Lambert must also be wondering how his side failed to test a team that had shipped at least two goals in eight of their previous nine games.

After losing five of their last six matches, Wigan knew they could not afford a defeat at Villa Park.

And they responded when Ramis escaped from Christian Benteke to power in a header from Jean Beausejour's corner.

Referee Kevin Friend, blasted by Roberto Mancini on Boxing Day, then waved away two good penalty shouts from the Latics.

Despite being battered throughout the opening period, Villa almost snatched one back when Benteke flicked on Barry Bannan's hoof forward and Brett Holman prodded against the bar.

Lambert sent his side out five minutes early for the second half – but it didn't produce the desired effect as Wigan doubled their lead on 51 minutes.

Boyce surged forward and swapped passes with Kone before guiding a neat shot past Brad Guzan.

Wigan quickly snatched a third when Kone took Franco Di Santo's pass in his stride before firing in from a narrow angle.

Mancini blasts ref after Nasri gets his butt out

NORWICH 3

MAN CITY 4

ROBERTO MANCINI laid into ref Mike Jones for sending off Samir Nasri in Man City's crazy win at Norwich.

The French midfielder saw red a minute before the break for head-butting Canaries centre-half Sebastien Bassong.

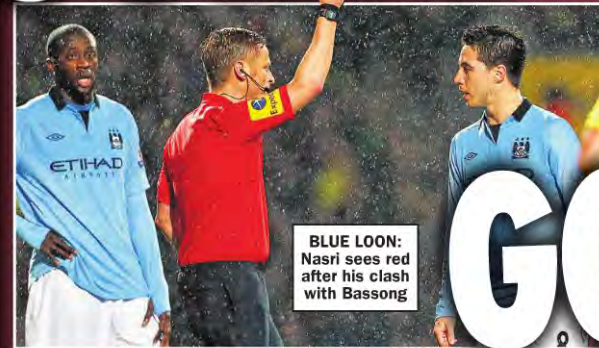

But Mancini insisted Bassong should have been given his marching orders as well – and claimed his side was being victimised.

The City boss blasted: "He touched his head but the other player did the same. So if both players were sent off, OK I agree."

"Samir made a mistake but he was not only one player who did something wrong. I am for the rules being the same for everyone but always there are different rules – I hate this."

Two strikes from Edin Dzeko, a Sergio Aguero effort and own goal from Mark Bunn saw the 10 men hang on to remain seven points behind leaders Man United.

BALE'S FURY OVER DIVING CLAIMS

GARETH BALE defended himself after receiving another yellow card for diving as Tottenham came from a goal behind to win at the Stadium of Light.

An own goal from Carlos Cuellar and Aaron Lennon's strike cancelled out John O'Shea's first-half effort.

The win moved Andre Villas-Boas' side up to third, but Bale's latest booking means he will miss the New Year's Day game against Reading.

The Welsh winger went down after the slightest of touches from Craig Gardner. But Bale claimed he's hard

"There's nothing I can do. People think that I am diving when there is actually contact."

"What else can I do but go down if there's contact?"

"It has to be a free-kick or a penalty. It doesn't bother me – people can say what they want."
